Civil Action No. 19-01627

FILED UNDER SEAL

1) TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER; 2) ORDER RESTRAINING ASSETS AND MERCHANT STOREFRONTS; 3) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT ISSUE; AND 4) ORDER AUTHORIZING EXPEDITED
DISCOVERY

This matter is before the Court upon Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining assets and Merchant Storefronts (as defined infra); 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; and 4) an order authorizing expedited discovery against the Defendants identified on Schedule "A" to the Complaint and attached hereto (collectively, the "Defendants"). The Court has considered the Application, the evidence in the record, and the applicable law.

By the instant Application, Plaintiffs Doggie Dental Inc. and Peter Dertsakyan move ex parte pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 64 and 65, and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), for entry of a temporary restraining order and an order restraining assets and Merchant Storefronts, for violations of the Patent Act. Because Plaintiffs have satisfied the requirements for the issuance of a temporary restraining order, the Court grants Plaintiffs' Application.

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. The Court finds that Plaintiffs, Doggie Dental, Inc. (“Doggie Dental”) and Peter Dertsakyan (“Dertsakyan”), are likely to prevail on their Patent Act claim at trial, and that there is a substantial basis to support each of the below findings.

2. Dertsakyan is the inventor of the BRISTLY[®] dog toothbrush (“Plaintiffs’ Product”) and the owner of intellectual property related thereto; Doggie Dental is the exclusive licensee of such intellectual property. Plaintiffs developed and sell a unique and revolutionary product under the federally registered trademark BRISTLY[®] (“Plaintiffs’ Mark”) that safely and easily permits dogs to brush their own teeth removing plaque and tarter.

3. Dertsakyan is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 5,815,298 for BRISTLY directed to “Non-medicated dental preparations for pets, namely, toothpaste and preparations for removing plaque; Home dental care products for dogs and cats, namely, toothpaste; Dental care and oral hygiene products for pets, namely, tooth cleaning preparations; Non-edible dental chews for pets; Non-medicated oral dental chews for dogs.”

4. Dertsakyan is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 5,844,832 for BRISTLY directed to “Toothbrushes for animals; Toothbrushes for pets; Home dental care products for dogs and cats, namely, toothbrush.”

5. Dertsakyan is the owner of U.S. copyright registration VA 2-122-455 directed to various photographs related to the BRISTLY[®] dog toothbrush (the “Plaintiffs’ Works”). Dertsakyan is also the owner of unregistered copyrights related to the Plaintiffs’ Product.

6. In addition, Dertsakyan is also the owner of various design patent applications directed to the BRISTLY[®] dog toothbrush, including an issued European Registered Community

Design (005818606-0001), a pending U.S. design patent application, and a pending Chinese design patent application.

7. Dertsakyan is the owner of U.S. Patent No. 10477838 for “Pet chew toy for dental self-cleaning by domestic pets,” (Plaintiffs’ Patent” or “the ‘838 Patent”).

8. Defendants, by operating Internet based e-commerce stores, and fully interactive, commercial Internet websites operating under Defendants’ respective seller identities set forth on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Seller IDs”), have advertised, promoted, sold, and offered for sale that Plaintiffs have determined are not genuine BRISTLY[®] products and infringe at least one claim of the ‘838 patent.

9. Through the e-commerce marketplace platform, Plaintiffs accessed all of the e-commerce stores operating under Defendants’ Seller IDs and captured the Defendants’ listings at issue on the e-commerce stores. At the conclusion of the process, the detailed webpages and photographs were inspected by Plaintiffs’ representative who confirmed that each Defendant is offering for sale products and infringe upon at least one claim of the Plaintiffs’ Patent (“Infringing Products”).

10. Plaintiffs, as well as consumers and animal owners, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiffs’ Application for ex parte relief is granted. There is good cause to believe that the unauthorized and unlicensed offering for sale and sale of Infringing Products will continue in the marketplace; that consumers are likely to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of the products so advertised, and that Plaintiffs may suffer loss of sales for their genuine products and an unnatural erosion of the legitimate marketplace in which they operate. There is also good cause to believe that if Plaintiffs proceed on notice to Defendants of this Application,

Defendants can easily and quickly change the ownership or modify e-commerce store account data and content, change payment accounts, redirect consumer traffic to other seller identification names, and transfer assets and ownership of Seller IDs, thereby thwarting Plaintiffs' ability to obtain meaningful relief. As other courts have recognized, proceedings against those who deliberately traffic in infringing merchandise are often useless if notice is given to the adverse party.

11. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiffs, their reputation, and their goodwill as a manufacturer and distributor of quality products, if such relief is not issued.

12. The public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiffs' interests and protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by the passing off of Defendants substandard goods as Plaintiffs' genuine goods.

13. Under Pennsylvania law this Court may issue a prejudgment asset restraint where Plaintiffs' complaint asserts a claim for money damages. Therefore, this Court has the authority to grant Plaintiffs' request for a prejudgment asset freeze to preserve the relief sought by Plaintiffs and preserve the Defendants' ability to at least partially satisfy a judgment.

14. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiffs the records and documents relating to Defendants' illegal and infringing activities. Therefore, Plaintiffs have good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

GORGE DESIGN GROUP, LLC, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ACCESSMALL, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 19-1454

FILED UNDER SEAL

██████████ 1) TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER; 2) ORDER RESTRAINING ASSETS AND MERCHANT STOREFRONTS; 3) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT ISSUE; AND 4) ORDER AUTHORIZING EXPEDITED DISCOVERY

This matter is before the Court upon Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining assets and Merchant Storefronts (as defined infra); 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; and 4) an order authorizing expedited discovery against the Defendants identified on Schedule "A" to the Complaint and attached hereto (collectively, the "Defendants"). The Court has considered the Application, the evidence in the record, and the applicable law.

By the instant Application, Plaintiffs Gorge Design Group, LLC, and Kirby Erdely move ex parte pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 116, 15 U.S.C. § 283, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 64 and 65, and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), for entry of a temporary restraining order and an order restraining assets and Merchant Storefronts, for violations of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), the Patent Act, 15 U.S.C. § 281, and related state law claims. Because Plaintiffs have satisfied the requirements for the issuance of a temporary restraining order, the Court grants Plaintiffs' Application.

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. Plaintiffs, Gorge Design Group, LLC, (“Gorge Design Group”) and Kirby Erdely (“Erdely”), are likely to prevail on their Lanham Act claims, Patent claims, and related state law claims at trial.

2. David J. Brown, invented the Orange Screw ground anchor (the “Ultimate Ground Anchor”) and Kirby Erdely, David J. Brown’s son-in-law, is the owner of the patent related thereto; Gorge Design Group, LLC and Kirby Erdely are the owners of all the intellectual property related thereto. They are a family-owned business and the named Plaintiffs in this lawsuit. Erdely brought his father-in law’s invention to market, and now, with Gorge Design, sell the unique and revolutionary product under the common law trademark ULTIMATE GROUND ANCHOR (“Plaintiffs’ Mark”) that is the most effective ground anchor ever made (“Plaintiffs’ Product”). The Plaintiffs’ Product is made of 100% recycled materials and manufactured in the U.S.A. The Plaintiffs’ Product will secure pets; anchor RV awnings; hold tarps over boats, ATVs and firewood; as well as ensure tents and sunshades stay put

3. Plaintiffs have gained significant common law trademark and other rights in Plaintiffs’ Mark, through use, advertising, and promotion.

4. Plaintiffs are the owners of various published photographs, videos, artwork, creative text and product instructions appearing on kickstarter.com and orangescrew.com. (“Plaintiffs’ Works”).

5. In addition to their common law trademark rights in Plaintiff’s Mark, Kirby Erdely is the owner of U.S. Patent No. 7309198 for “Re-useable threaded tie downs” (“the ‘198 Patent”).

6. Defendants, by operating Internet based e-commerce stores, and fully interactive, commercial Internet websites operating under Defendants' respective seller identities set forth on Schedule "A" hereto (the "Seller IDs"), have advertised, promoted, sold, and offered for sale goods featuring, displaying, and/or using Plaintiff's Mark, Plaintiffs' Works and/or used Plaintiffs' Patent without authorization and Plaintiffs have determined the products that each Defendant is offering for sale are not genuine products.

7. Through the e-commerce marketplace platform, Plaintiffs accessed all of the e-commerce stores operating under Defendants' Seller IDs and captured the Defendants' listings at issue on the e-commerce stores. At the conclusion of the process, the detailed webpages and photographs were inspected by Plaintiffs' representative who confirmed that each Defendant is featuring, displaying, and/or using Plaintiffs' Mark and/or Plaintiffs' Works and/or Infringing one or more claims of Plaintiffs' Patent without authorization and the products that each Defendant is offering for sale are not genuine products.

8. Plaintiffs have a strong probability of proving at trial that consumers are likely to be confused by Defendants' advertisement, promotion, sale, offer for sale, or distribution of products with unauthorized and unlicensed uses of Plaintiffs' Mark and Plaintiffs' Works, in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), that at least one claim of the '198 Patent has been infringed, and prevailing on their related state law claims.

9. Plaintiffs, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiffs' Application for ex parte relief is granted. There is good cause to believe that the unauthorized and unlicensed use of Plaintiffs' Mark, Plaintiffs' Works, and infringement of at least one claim of the '198 Patent will continue in the marketplace; that consumers are likely to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of the products so advertised, and that Plaintiffs may suffer loss of sales for their genuine products and an unnatural erosion of the legitimate marketplace in which they operate. There is also good cause to believe that if Plaintiffs proceed on notice to Defendants of this Application, Defendants can easily and quickly change the ownership or modify e-commerce store account data and content, change payment accounts, redirect consumer traffic to other seller identification names, and transfer assets and ownership of Seller IDs, thereby thwarting Plaintiffs' ability to obtain meaningful relief. As other courts have recognized, proceedings against those who deliberately traffic in infringing merchandise are often useless if notice is given to the adverse party.

10. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiffs, their reputation, and their goodwill as a manufacturer and distributor of quality products, if such relief is not issued.

11. The public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiffs' interests and protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by the passing off of Defendants substandard goods as Plaintiffs' genuine goods.

12. Under Pennsylvania law this Court may issue a prejudgment asset restraint where Plaintiffs' complaint asserts a claim for money damages. This Court also has the inherent authority to issue a prejudgment asset restraint when Plaintiffs' complaint seeks relief in equity. According to both the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a)(1), Plaintiffs are entitled, "subject to the principles of equity, to recover ... defendant's profits." Plaintiffs seek, among other relief, that Defendants account for and pay to Plaintiffs all profits realized by Defendants by reason of Defendants' unlawful acts. Therefore, this Court has the authority to grant Plaintiffs' request for a prejudgment asset freeze to preserve the relief sought by Plaintiffs and preserve the Defendants' ability to at least partially satisfy a judgment.

13. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiffs the records and documents relating to Defendants' illegal and infringing activities. Therefore, Plaintiffs have good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

- (4) Defendants' unauthorized and unlicensed use of Plaintiffs' Mark, Plaintiffs' Works, and/or infringement of at least one claim of the '198 Patent in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any products, and any products which use Plaintiffs' Plaintiffs' Mark, Plaintiffs' Works, and/or infringe at least one claim of the '198 Patent.

V. Security Bond

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs shall place security (corporate surety bond, cash, certified check, or attorney's check) in the amount of $ 5,000 Dollars (Five thousand) with the Court, which amount is determined adequate for the payment of any damages any person may be entitled to recover as a result of an improper or wrongful restraint ordered hereunder.

1) TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER; 2) ORDER RESTRAINING ASSETS AND MERCHANT STOREFRONTS; 3) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY A PRELIMINARY
INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT ISSUE; AND 4) ORDER AUTHORIZING EXPEDITED
DISCOVERY

On this day the Court considered Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining assets and Merchant Storefronts (as defined infra); 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; and 4) an order authorizing expedited discovery against all of the Defendants identified on the attached Schedule "A", Amazon Services, Inc. and Amazon Payments, Inc. in light of Defendants' intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products (as defined infra) ("Application") Having reviewed the Application, the Declarations of Margaret B. Tyler, Brian Samuel Malkin, Stanley D. Ference III, and Amy Cline, along with the exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act claims, patent claims, and related state law claims at trial;

2. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff as well as consumers are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard products bearing or using Plaintiff's registered trademark (i.e., U.S. Trademark Reg. No. 5,142,630 for the wordmark "NEGG") and/or that use packaging that bears and/or is used in connection with marks and/or trade dress (hereinafter referred to as the "NEGG Marks) that is confusing or substantially similar to Plaintiff's authentic products sold using the NEGG Marks ("NEGG Products") and/or that infringe at least Claim 1 of Plaintiff's U.S. Patent No. 9,968,211 entitled "PERSONAL EGG PEELER" (hereinafter referred to as "the '211 patent") (collectively referred to as, "Counterfeit Product(s)" or "Infringing Product(s)") that overall infringe the NEGG Marks and/or at least Claim 1 of the '211 patent through accounts with the online marketplace platform Amazon.com, by Defendants ("User Account¹(s)");
- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its NEGG Products; and
- c. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if it proceeds on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the

NEGG Marks and/or at least Claim 1 of the '211 patent, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the NEGG Marks and/or at least Claim 1 of the '211 patent, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing NEGG Marks and/or at least Claim 1 of the '211 patent and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts through which Defendants, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, offer for sale, sell and/or otherwise deal in products, including Counterfeit Products ("Merchant Storefront(s)²") under new or different names and to continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence;

3. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the NEGG Marks and to its reputation if a temporary restraining order is not issued; in the absence of a temporary restraining order Plaintiff would be forced to compete against its own patented invention, a situation that places a substantial hardship on a patentee;

² As defined in the Application, a "Merchant Storefront" is any and all User Accounts through which Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them operate storefronts to manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, display, offer for sale, sell and/or otherwise deal in products, including Counterfeit Products, which are held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them.

4. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its NEGG Marks and its patented invention and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit products as NEGG Products.

5. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way.

6. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.

7. This Court has the inherent authority to issue a prejudgment asset restraint when plaintiff's complaint seeks relief in equity. In addition, Plaintiff has shown a strong likelihood of succeeding on the merits of its trademark infringement and counterfeiting claim, so according to the Lanham Act 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a)(1), Plaintiff is entitled, "subject to the principles of equity, to recover ... defendant's profits." Plaintiff seeks, among other relief, that Defendants account for and pay to Plaintiff all profits realized by Defendants by reason of Defendants' unlawful acts. Therefore, this Court has the inherent equitable authority to grant Plaintiff's request for a prejudgment asset freeze to preserve the relief sought by Plaintiff.

8. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the NEGG Marks and at least Claim 1 of the '211 patent. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days to locate, attach and freeze

Defendants' Assets (as defined infra) and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts (as defined infra) and it is not unusual for the Third Party Service Provider (as defined infra) operating the online marketplaces a minimum of two (2) weeks to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and the Third Party Service Provider with this Order and for the Financial Institutions and/or the Third Party Service Provider to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.

9. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore, Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, Plaintiff's Application is hereby GRANTED as follows (the "Order"):

I. Temporary Restraining Order

A. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as sufficient cause has been shown, that each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order are hereby restrained as follows:

- (1) from manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling and/or otherwise dealing in Counterfeit Products;
- (2) from secreting, concealing, destroying, altering, selling off, transferring or otherwise disposing of and/or dealing with: (i) Counterfeit Products and/or (ii) any computer files, data, business records, documents or any other records or evidence relating to their User Accounts, Merchant Storefronts or any money, securities or other property or assets of Defendants (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants’ Assets”) and the manufacture, importation, exportation, advertising, marketing, promotion, distribution, display, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products;
- (3) effecting assignments or transfers, forming new entities or associations, or creating and/or utilizing any other platform, User Account, Merchant Storefront or any other means of importation, exportation, advertising, marketing, promotion, distribution, display, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products for the purposes of circumventing or otherwise avoiding the prohibitions set forth in this Order;
- (4) each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue use of any marks that are confusingly similar with the Plaintiff’s NEGG ® trademark, within metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any web page (including as the title of any product listing), from any advertising links to other websites offering Counterfeit Products for sale, from search engines’ databases or cache memory, and any other form of use such that the NEGG ® trademark or a confusingly similar mark are visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches to a Merchant Storefront registered, owned, or operated by each Defendant, including the Merchant Storefronts operating under the Seller IDs;

- (5) each Defendant shall not transfer ownership of the User Accounts or Merchant Storefronts associated with the Seller IDs;
- (6) each Defendant shall preserve copies of all computer files relating to the use of any User Accounts and/or Merchant Storefronts under the Seller IDs and shall take steps necessary to retrieve computer files relating to the use of the User Accounts and/or Merchant Storefronts under their Seller IDs that may be deleted before the entry of this Order;
- (7) upon receipt of the notice of this Order, Amazon Payments, Inc. (“Amazon”), and its related companies and affiliates, shall immediately identify and restrain all funds, as opposed to ongoing account activity, in the Amazon accounts related to the Defendants as identified on Schedule “A” hereto, as well as all funds in or which are transmitted into (i) any other accounts of the same customer(s); (ii) any other accounts which transfer funds into the same financial institution account(s), and/or any of the other Amazon accounts subject to this Order; and (iii) any other Amazon accounts tied to or used by any of the Seller IDs identified on Schedule “A” hereto³;
- (8) Amazon shall immediately divert to a holding account for the trust of the Court all funds in all Amazon accounts related to Defendants identified in Schedule “A” hereto, and associated payment accounts, and any other accounts for the same customer(s) as well as any other accounts which transfer funds into the same financial institution account(s) as any other Amazon accounts subject to this Order;

³ This Order contemplates that discovery may reveal that Defendants may have used other user accounts, operated by other Third Party Service Providers Financial Institutions other than Amazon and that any additional discovered Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions, once identified and provided with notice, shall be subject to the discovery, restraints, and injunctions set forth in this Order.

(9) Amazon shall further, within five (5) business days of receiving this Order, provide Plaintiff's counsel with all data that details (i) an accounting of the total funds restrained and identifies the financial account(s) which the restrained funds are related to, and (ii) the account transactions related to all funds transmitted into financial account(s) which have been restrained. Such restraining of the funds and the disclosure of the related financial institution account information shall be made without notice to the account holders, until after those accounts are restrained. No funds restrained by this Order shall be transferred or surrendered by Amazon for any purpose (other than pursuant to a chargeback made pursuant to Amazon's security interest in the funds) without express authorization of this Court;

(10) this Order shall apply to the Seller IDs, associated Accounts and Merchant Storefronts, and any other seller identification names, Accounts or Merchant Storefronts, or Amazon accounts which are being used by Defendants for the purpose of counterfeiting the NEGG products at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with Plaintiff;

(11) Amazon or any Defendant or financial institution account holder subject to this Order may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order;

(12) this Order shall remain in effect until the date for the hearing to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued as set forth below, or until such further dates as set by the Court or stipulated by the parties;

B. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as sufficient cause has been shown, that Amazon is hereby restrained and enjoined from engaging in any of the following acts or omissions pending the hearing and determination of Plaintiff's Application for a preliminary injunction, or until further order of the Court:

secreting, concealing, transferring, disposing of, withdrawing, encumbering or paying Defendants' Assets from or to financial accounts associated with or utilized by any Defendant or any Defendant's User Accounts or Merchant Storefront(s) (whether said account is located in the U.S. or abroad) ("Defendants' Financial Accounts") until further ordered by this Court;

C. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as sufficient cause has been shown, that Amazon is hereby restrained and enjoined from engaging in any of the following acts or omissions pending the hearing and determination of Plaintiff's Application for a preliminary injunction, or until further order of the Court:

3 THE COURT: This is the time and place for
4 proceedings in the matter styled Airigan Solutions, LLC,
5 Plaintiff, versus Abigail, et al., Defendants, Civil Action
6 No. 19-cv-503. Present on behalf of the Plaintiff are both 7 counsel, Stanley Ference and Brian Malkin. Both of whom are 8 appearing here in person.

9 Now, we had initially scheduled this matter to start
10 at 11:30 in the morning. It's now about 11:16. Counsel are 11 here and ready to proceed. And, to that end, I would note no
12 one else has appeared on behalf of any party to this matter.
13 In fact, no one has appeared on behalf of the Defendants.

14 My staff -- that's Mr. Kravetz, Mr. Galovich and the 15 remainder of my clerks and interns -- have also told me no one
16 has made any contact with our chambers about this matter.
17 Meanwhile, this hearing has been duly scheduled on the Court's 18 CM/ECF system. It also appears on the Court's website. And 19 it's also posted on the halls of the courthouse, as I have now
20 been told, twice.

21 Since we're the only game in town, there could be no
22 line trying to get up here from the security station on the 23 first floor; and so that would not be the reason for any kind
24 of a delay in appearing here today.

25 By way of background, on May 2, 2019, the Plaintiff

1 filed a complaint against a number of sellers on Amazon
2 alleging that they had sold knock-off versions of its Negg.
3 Negg is N-E-G-G. The Negg is an egg peeler, and they were 4 being sold through amazon.com and using Amazon payments.

5 Now, this case is related to a number of other
6 complaints filed at Civil Actions No. 18-1330, 18-1462 and 7 19-166, all of which are brought against sellers on Amazon,
8 eBay, aliexpress.com, Pay Pal and wish.com. On the same day
9 this Court issued a temporary restraining order authorizing
10 expedited discovery and ordered the Defendants to show cause
11 why a preliminary injunction should not issue in this case,
12 and I set this matter for hearing.

13 On May 28, 2019, the Plaintiff filed an amended 14 complaint adding additional Defendants to this lawsuit. The 15 Court then issued an amended temporary restraining order and 16 amended orders authorizing expedited discovery and to show
17 cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue in this 18 case.

19 I initially set this matter for hearing on June 10th, 20 but at the request of Plaintiff granted a continuance until 21 today's date. And, hence, the matter is scheduled for today.

22 Now, the Plaintiff's attorney has represented that 23 they have served all of the Defendants pursuant to the Court's 24 order for alternative service. Plaintiffs subsequently 25 submitted a proposed preliminary injunction order, along with

1 a declaration by the inventor, Margaret Tyler, and a number of 2 exhibits, all of which the Court has had the opportunity to 3 review and consider in advance of today's proceedings.

4 Once again, no representative and no counsel have
5 entered appearances for any of the Defendants as of this time,
6 nor has anyone appeared here in open court, despite the 7 Court's scheduling of this hearing.

8 Now, at this time I ask Mr. Ference and Mr. Malkin
9 whether you intend to put on any additional evidence at this 10 time, either by witness or by document.

11 MR. FERENCE: No, Your Honor. We rely on our papers.

12 THE COURT: To that end, as the Court has indicated,
13 the Court has carefully reviewed the papers in this case
14 including the most recent amended complaint; and, in addition,
15 the Court has had the benefit of the proposed preliminary 16 injunction order and, most importantly, the declaration of 17 Margaret B. Tyler.

18 Ms. Tyler identifies herself as the president and one 19 of the co-founders of Plaintiff, Airigan Solutions. And, to 20 that end, she provides the Court with background as to how 21 Amazon sells, that particularly products are assigned specific 22 codes. And, to that end, relative to her company's invention;
23 namely, seven of the assigned code numbers called Amazon
24 Standard Identification Numbers were considered to be variants
25 of B01MT9TX -- 1 or I -- ZSIAN. And, to that end, apparently,

1 she and members of her company have tried numerous times to
2 have Amazon relink, but they have been unsuccessful in this 3 regard.

4 And, as she advises the Court, not all of the sellers
5 under the ASINs controlled by Airigan are, in fact, authorized
6 sellers. And even though Amazon's been requested to do so, it
7 has continued to permit unauthorized sellers to list under 8 Airigan-controlled ASINs, and it has not promptly removed 9 unauthorized dealers.

10 And, to that end, she actually provides a number of 11 printouts as exhibits; and they demonstrate what appears on 12 the Amazon site. And that, in the Court's estimation, is 13 consistent with what she tells me by way of declaration.

14 And she points out something that I think we all well
15 know, that Amazon now accounts for over 50 percent of 16 E-commerce sales. Meanwhile, what's happening here is that 17 these products that Amazon is selling allegedly as Neggs are,
18 indeed, not Neggs, but they're being produced primarily in 19 China.

20 She further tells me at Paragraph 10, no sellers
21 based in China are authorized resellers of the Negg egg
22 peeler; and no product originating in China is a genuine Negg
23 egg peeler, despite what these postings on Amazon might say.

24 She also says -- and this is kind of interesting, as 25 these cases are developed -- that Airigan ran targeted

1 advertising. And what's happening, basically, is this
2 advertising that her company is running is, in effect, inuring
3 to the benefit of these counterfeiters and Amazon. And, as we 4 all know, people are always looking for a bargain; and they're 5 trying to find the lowest available price. These counterfeit
6 Negg egg peelers are priced anywhere between $7.49 and $10.
7 Whereas, the genuine Negg egg peeler is sold for $17.95.

8 And so the more her company tries to advertise, in 9 effect, it's not necessarily benefiting her company, Airigan,
10 but it's benefiting these counterfeiters and, indeed, Amazon.

11 So having considered all of that, and certainly 12 having considered what I've learned through the rest of this 13 litigation and related cases, it would appear that the 14 Plaintiff's position is well-taken in this case seeking a
15 preliminary injunction order.

16 But having said that, Mr. Ference and Mr. Malkin, do
17 you have any argument you would like to present at this time?

18 MR. FERENCE: Nothing other than what was in our 19 paperwork, Your Honor, although we would be happy to answer
20 any questions you may have.

21 THE COURT: Okay. No. I think that you've been very 22 self-explanatory. And, as I've said in other hearings we've 23 had in these cases each and every time, I think you and 24 Mr. Malkin have risen to the challenge providing well-done
25 documents including briefing as well as declarations and

1 exhibits. It makes the judge's job very easy.

2 So having considered the Plaintiff's complaint, the
3 amended complaint, the motion for temporary restraining order
4 and supporting evidence, having considered the position of the 5 Plaintiff and, again, no one having appeared on behalf of the 6 Defendants, having considered the proposed order and certainly
7 the declaration of Ms. Tyler and the attachments, as the Court
8 just reviewed, and also having considered what I've learned in 9 the related matters at Civil Actions No. 18-1330, 18-1462 and 10 19-166, the Court will enter the preliminary injunction order
11 in the form as presented by the Plaintiff. I also order that 12 the $5,000 bond, which had been previously posted, shall 13 remain in place.

14 I further order that Amazon shall comply within five 15 calendar days. Now, to that end, at this time I have been 16 provided with the preliminary injunction order; and I'll sign
17 off on same here in open court, having all of you read these 18 in anticipation of today's proceeding.

19 (Pause.)

20 THE COURT: Once again, I would note that we still 21 have not seen anyone appearing on behalf of the Defendants, 22 nor has my chambers been contacted by anyone on behalf of the 23 Defendants.

24 So the Court has entered both of these orders on this 25 5th day of July 2019. And I've timed it at 11:30, as we're

1 just about at the 11:30 mark. Now, before I conclude, do
2 either counsel wish a copy of today's proceedings by way of 3 transcript?

4 MR. FERENCE: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay. If at some point that becomes 6 important, of course, you'll get in touch with our chambers;
7 and we'll order preparation. Is there any other matter for 8 the Court's attention?

9 MR. FERENCE: No, Your Honor.

10 MR. MALKIN: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Relative to this case, do you anticipate
12 any other related filings that might appear?

13 MR. FERENCE: It all depends on what's in the 14 marketplace, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Has there been any 16 reaction, by the way, to the other lawyers that have been 17 entered?

18 MR. FERENCE: No.

19 THE COURT: Just coincidentally, I don't know where I
20 was the last few days. I think I know where I was. I think I
21 was actually at the funeral home. And for whatever reason, 22 somebody I was talking to brought up the fact that he or she 23 purchased things on Amazon. And that particular person was 24 complaining to me about the fact that you don't almost know
25 where these things are coming from. You don't know the

1 country of origin.

2 And this particular person was complaining that they
3 thought Amazon should do a better job before it puts something
4 out in the marketplace as to where these things are coming
5 from and the like. So I thought that was kind of interesting.

6 Coincidentally, on the ride in, I think it was NPR
7 this morning had a story about Amazon and how it's grown from 8 selling books. But it was always Mr. Bezos' idea that it was 9 going to be much more than a book seller. Is that what you
10 heard, too, Mr. Ference?

11 MR. FERENCE: I did not hear that, Your Honor. I
12 thought you were going to say it was the story about a Third
13 Circuit decision that came out on July 3rd involving Amazon.
14 And I have two copies here for you.

15 THE COURT: The one where they were found to be 16 strictly liable as a seller as well?

17 MR. FERENCE: Correct.

18 THE COURT: I did read that. Actually, I passed it 19 on to my daughter, who is a dog lover, because of the 20 underlying facts, how that leash, I guess, snapped back. And 21 the dog owner lost her eye. It's a pretty remarkable factual
22 basis.

23 MR. FERENCE: Well, the Third Circuit decision gives 24 a little bit of background on how Amazon's business operates
25 and how people come to be listed as sellers on Amazon. Given

1 your experience with these cases, I thought reading that
2 portion of the decision might be of interest to you.

3 THE COURT: Well, certainly. I've only read the 4 blurb, if you will, that we get automatically when the opinion
5 came down. Frankly, it's Hornbook law. They're in the chain
6 of sale.

7 MR. FERENCE: This is the first decision that has 8 found Amazon to be a seller for anything that has been sold by 9 a third party on the Amazon website.

10 THE COURT: Interesting.

11 MR. FERENCE: So that's one of the reasons why in 12 these cases we're naming the stores that are selling it
13 instead of Amazon. As previously, everybody -- the courts
14 that have considered it have found Amazon does not take 15 possession or title to the good and, thus, is not a seller and 16 does not have any liability.

17 THE COURT: But Amazon is making some money along the 18 way.

19 MR. FERENCE: Yes, they are.

20 THE COURT: Right. So it sounds to me like a seller.
21 Right?

22 MR. FERENCE: Sounds to us like a seller as well,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Well, we'll be happy to take a copy, if 25 you have it. Because I think that my clerks might be

1 interested in reading a full opinion, if they haven't. And I
2 know our intern, Mr. Constantino, would be interested, too.

3 MR. FERENCE: I have two copies for you.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. We appreciate that. It saves
5 us some paper. Both of those are signed, Mr. Kravetz. So the 6 originals of the preliminary injunction orders, having been 7 signed, we're going to be providing them to Mr. Ference and 8 Mr. Malkin. And then we'll be entering our order on the 9 docket. Mr. Kravetz checked that I actually signed.

10 THE DEPUTY CLERK: It's only one line.

11 THE COURT: Is there anything else for the Court's 12 attention? Otherwise, we'll wish you a good weekend. And 13 enjoy the rest of this holiday weekend.

14 MR. FERENCE: Thank you very much, Your Honor. We 15 have nothing else at this time.

16 MR. MALKIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 concluded.)

Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard products bearing or using Plaintiff’s Mark and/or Rapid Slicer Work that use packaging that bears and/or is used in connection with Mark and/or trade dress (collectively referred to as the “Plaintiff’s Mark”) that is confusing or substantially similar to Plaintiff’s authentic products sold using Plaintiff’s Mark and/or that infringe on Plaintiff’s federally registered copyright for the Rapid Slicer Work that overall infringe the Rapid Slicer

Mark and/or Rapid Slicer Work (collectively referred to as “Infringing Product(s)” or “Counterfeit Product(s)”) through accounts with the online marketplace platform Alibaba Group Holding Ltd and Alibaba.com US LLC d/b/a Aliexpress.com (“Aliexpress”), Amazon Services LLC d/b/a Amazon.com, and eBay, Inc. d/b/a eBay.com (“eBay”) (“Third Party Service Provider(s)”) and Alipay US Inc. d/b/a Alipay.com (“Alipay”), Amazon Payments, Inc. d/b/a Pay.amazon.com (“Amazon Pay”) and PayPal, Inc. d/b/a paypal.com (“PayPal”) (“Financial Institutions”), by Defendants (“User Account²(s)”);

- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products and Infringing Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products and Infringing Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff’s reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its Rapid Slicer Product; and
- c. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if it proceeds on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products or other goods that infringe the Rapid Slicer Mark and/or Rapid Slicer Work, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products, and records relating thereto are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff’s claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products

² As defined in the Application, a “User Account” is, as defined in the Complaint, any and all accounts with online marketplace platform(s) Aliexpress.com, Amazon.com, and eBay.com, as well as any and all as yet undiscovered accounts with additional online marketplace platforms held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all other persons in active concert with any of them.

or Infringing Products or other goods infringing the Rapid Slicer Mark, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products or other goods infringing the Rapid Slicer Mark and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts through which Defendants, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, offer for sale, sell and/or otherwise deal in products, including Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products (“Merchant Storefront(s)³”) under new or different names and to continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products and Infringing Products with little to no consequence;

6. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Rapid Slicer Mark and Rapid Slicer Work;

7. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff’s interests in and to its Rapid Slicer Mark and Rapid Slicer Work and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants’ passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Raid Slicer Product(s) or Defendants selling Infringing Products as Rapid Slicer Work(s).

³ As defined in the Application, a “Merchant Storefront” is any and all User Accounts through which Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them operate storefronts to manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, display, offer for sale, sell and/or otherwise deal in products, including Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products, which are held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them.

8. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way.

9. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.

10. This Court has the inherent authority to issue a prejudgment asset restraint when plaintiff's complaint seeks relief in equity. In addition, Plaintiff has shown a strong likelihood of succeeding on the merits of its trademark infringement and counterfeiting claim, so according to the Lanham Act 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a)(1), Plaintiff is entitled, "subject to the principles of equity, to recover ... defendant's profits." Plaintiff seeks, among other relief, that Defendants account for and pay to Plaintiff all profits realized by Defendants by reason of Defendants' unlawful acts. Therefore, this Court has the inherent equitable authority to grant Plaintiff's request for a prejudgment asset freeze to preserve the relief sought by Plaintiff.

11. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products, Infringing Products, or other goods infringing the Rapid Slicer Mark or Rapid Slicer Work. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets (as defined infra) and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts (as defined infra) and it is not unusual for the Third Party Service Provider (as defined infra) operating the online marketplaces a minimum of two (2) weeks to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and the Third Party Service Provider with this Order and for the Financial Institutions and/or the Third Party Service

Provider to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.

12. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products or Infringing Products. Therefore, Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

ROBERT ANDREW FFRENCH,

Plaintiff,

Civil Action No.: 1:20-cv-03178

v.

Judge Matthew F. Kennelly

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED
ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE "A",

Defendants.

SEALED TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff, Plaintiff, ROBERT ANDREW FFRENCH, ("FFRENCH" or "Plaintiff") Ex Parte Motion for Entry of a Temporary Restraining Order, Including a Temporary Injunction, a Temporary Asset Restraint, Expedited Discovery, and Service of Process by Email and Electronic Publication (the "Ex Parte Motion") against the defendants identified on Schedule A to the Complaint and attached hereto (collectively, the "Defendants") and using at least the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A (the "Online Marketplace Accounts"), and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby GRANTS Plaintiff's Ex Parte Motion in its entirety.

This Court further finds that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants since the Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois, offering to sell and ship products into this Judicial District. Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Internet Stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products bearing counterfeit versions of the SHOTLOC Trademarks, which are covered by U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 4,218,495 and 6,023,219.

This Court also finds that issuing this Order without notice pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because Plaintiff has presented specific facts in the Declaration of Robert Andrew Ffrench paragraphs 15-24, and the Declaration of Keith A. Vogt, paragraphs 5-11, and accompanying evidence clearly showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition. Specifically, in the absence of an ex parte Order, Defendants could and likely would modify registration data and content, redirect traffic to other websites/stores in their control, and move any assets from accounts in U.S.-based financial institutions, including, but not limited to, PayPal accounts, to offshore accounts. Id. As other courts have recognized, proceedings against those who deliberately traffic in counterfeit merchandise are often useless if notice is given to the adverse party. Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Defendants, their affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under or in active concert with them be temporarily enjoined and restrained from:

- a. using Plaintiff's SHOTLOC Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine SHOTLOC product or not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with Plaintiff's SHOTLOC Trademarks;
- b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine SHOTLOC product or any other product produced by Plaintiff, that is not Plaintiff's or not produced under the authorization, control or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff for sale under Plaintiff's SHOTLOC Trademarks;

- c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control or supervision of Plaintiff, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiff;
- d. further infringing Plaintiff's SHOTLOC Trademarks and damaging Plaintiff's goodwill;
- e. otherwise competing unfairly with Plaintiff in any manner;
- f. shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiff, nor authorized by Plaintiff to be sold or offered for sale, and which bear any of Plaintiff's SHOTLOC Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof; and
- g. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the online marketplace accounts, or any domain name or other Online Marketplace Account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defendants could continue to sell Counterfeit SHOTLOC Products.

2. Those in privity with Defendants and with actual notice of this Order, including any online marketplaces such as, but not limited to, Alibaba Group Holding Ltd., Alipay.com Co., Ltd. and any related Alibaba entities (collectively, "Alibaba"), social media platforms,

Facebook, YouTube, LinkedIn, Twitter, Internet search engines such as Google, Bing and Yahoo, shall within three (3) business days of receipt of this Order:

- a. disable and cease providing services for any accounts through which Defendants engage in the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the SHOTLOC Trademarks, including any accounts associated with the Defendants listed on Schedule A;
- b. disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the SHOTLOC Trademarks; and
- c. take all steps necessary to prevent links to the Defendant Online Marketplace Accounts on Schedule A from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing links to the Defendant Online Marketplace Accounts from any search index.

3. Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defendants, or in connection with any other websites operated by Defendants, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Alibaba, advertisers, Facebook, Internet Service Providers ("ISP"), web hosts, back-end service providers, web designers, sponsored search engine or ad-word providers, banks, merchant account providers, including PayPal, Amazon, Alibaba, DHGate, third party processors and other payment processing service providers, shippers, and domain name registrars (collectively, the "Third Party Providers") shall, within five (5) business days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, including copies of all documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control relating to:

- a. The identities and locations of Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including all known contact information;
- b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Online Marketplace Accounts, and Defendants' financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Online Marketplace Accounts;
- c. Defendants' websites and/or any online marketplace accounts; and
- d. Any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, Amazon, Alibaba, DHGate, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff, ROBERT ANDREW FFRENCH’s (“Ffrench” or “Plaintiff”), Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion for Entry of a Preliminary Injunction in its entirety against the defendants identified in Schedule A (collectively, the “Defendants”).

THIS COURT HEREBY FINDS that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants since the Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. “In the context of cases like this one, that means a plaintiff must show that each defendant is actually operating an interactive website that is accessible in Illinois and that each defendant has aimed such site at Illinois by standing ready, willing and able to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois in particular (or otherwise has some sufficient voluntary contacts with the state).” Am. Bridal & Prom Indus. Ass’n v. P’ships & Unincorporated Ass’ns Identified on Schedule A, 192 F.Supp.3d 924, 934 (N.D. Ill. 2016). In this case, Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant Internet Store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Internet Stores through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using counterfeit versions of Plaintiff’s Trademarks. See Docket No. 12 which includes screenshot evidence confirming that each Defendant Internet Store does stand ready, willing and able to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois bearing infringing and/or counterfeit versions of the SHOTLOC trademarks, U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 4,218,495 and 6,023,219 (collectively “The SHOTLOC Trademarks”).

THIS COURT FURTHER FINDS that injunctive relief previously granted in the Temporary Restraining Order (“TRO”) should remain in place through the pendency of this litigation and that issuing this Preliminary Injunction is warranted under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65. Evidence submitted in support of this Motion and in support of Ffrench’s previously granted Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order establishes that Ffrench has a likelihood of success on the merits; that no remedy at law exists; and that Ffrench will suffer irreparable harm if the injunction is not granted.

Specifically, Ffrench has proved a prima facie case of trademark infringement because (1) the SHOTLOC Trademarks are distinctive marks and are registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on the Principal Register, (2) Defendants are not licensed or authorized to use the SHOTLOC Trademarks, and (3) Defendants’ use of the SHOTLOC Trademarks are causing a likelihood of confusion as to the origin or sponsorship of Defendants’ products with Ffrench. Furthermore, Defendants’ continued and unauthorized use of the SHOTLOC Trademarks irreparably harms SHOTLOC through diminished goodwill and brand confidence, damage to SHOTLOC’s reputation, loss of exclusivity, and loss of future sales. Monetary damages fail to address such damage and, therefore, Ffrench has an inadequate remedy at law. Moreover, the public interest is served by entry of this Preliminary Injunction to dispel the public confusion created by Defendants’ actions. Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Defendants, their affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under or in active concert with them be temporarily enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. using the SHOTLOC Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine SHOTLOC product or not authorized by Ffrench to be sold in connection with the SHOTLOC Trademarks;
 - b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine SHOTLOC product or any other product produced by Ffrench, that is not Ffrench's or not produced under the authorization, control or supervision of Ffrench and approved by Ffrench for sale under the SHOTLOC Trademarks;
 - c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control or supervision of Ffrench, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with SHOTLOC;
 - d. further infringing the SHOTLOC Trademarks and damaging Ffrench's goodwill;
 - e. otherwise competing unfairly with Ffrench in any manner;
 - f. shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Ffrench, nor authorized by Ffrench to be sold or offered for sale, and which bear any of the SHOTLOC Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof;

- g. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Online Marketplace Accounts, or any other online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defendants could continue to sell Counterfeit/Infringing SHOTLOC products; and
 - h. operating and/or hosting at the Online Marketplace Accounts and any other online marketplace accounts registered or operated by Defendants that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product bearing the SHOTLOC Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof that is not a genuine SHOTLOC product or not authorized by Ffrench to be sold in connection with the SHOTLOC Trademarks.
2. Those in privity with Defendants and with actual notice of this Order, including any online marketplaces such as, but not limited to Amazon, (collectively, "Marketplaces"), social media platforms, Facebook, YouTube, LinkedIn, Twitter, Internet search engines such as Google, Bing and Yahoo, shall within three (3) business days of receipt of this Order:
- a. disable and cease providing services for any accounts through which Defendants engage in the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the SHOTLOC Trademarks, including any accounts associated with the Defendants listed in Schedule A;

- b. disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the SHOTLOC Trademarks; and
 - c. take all steps necessary to prevent links to the Defendant Online Marketplace Accounts identified in Schedule A from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing links to the Online Marketplace Accounts from any search index.
3. Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defendants, or in connection with any of Defendants' Online Marketplace Accounts or other websites operated by Defendants, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Marketplaces, advertisers, Facebook, Internet Service Providers ("ISP"), web hosts, back-end service providers, web designers, sponsored search engine or ad-word providers, banks, merchant account providers, including PayPal, Alipay, Western Union, third party processors and other payment processing service providers, shippers, and online marketplace registrars (collectively, the "Third Party Providers") shall, within five (5) business days after receipt of such notice, provide to French expedited discovery, including copies of all documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control relating to:
 - a. The identities and locations of Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including all known contact information;
 - b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information

associated with the Online Marketplace Accounts, and Defendants' financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Online Marketplace Accounts;

- c. Defendants' websites and/or any Online Marketplace Accounts;
- d. The Defendant Online Marketplace Accounts registered by Defendants; and
- e. Any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, Amazon, PayPal, Alipay, Western Union, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

- 4. Defendants and any persons in active concert or participation with them who have actual notice of this Order shall be temporarily restrained and enjoined from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendants' assets until further ordered by this Court.
- 5. eBay, Inc. (“eBay”), PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”), Context Logic, Inc. (“WISH”), Amazon Payments, Inc. (“Amazon”), Alipay US, Inc. and its entities (“Alipay”), Alibaba Group Holding Limited (“Alibaba”), and Heguang International Limited or Dunhuang Group d/b/a DHGATE, DHGate.com, DHPort, DHLINK and DHPAY (“DHGate”), shall, within two (2) business days of receipt of this Order, for any Defendant or any of Defendants' Online Marketplace Accounts or websites:

- a. Locate all accounts and funds connected to Defendants, Defendants' Online Marketplace Accounts or Defendants' websites, including, but not limited to, any eBay, PayPal, WISH, Amazon, Alipay, Alibaba and DHGate accounts connected to the information listed in Schedule A hereto or the email addresses identified in Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Robert Andrew Ffrench; and
 - b. Restrain and enjoin any such accounts or funds that are non-U.S. foreign based from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendants' assets until further ordered by this Court.
6. Any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors, or other financial institutions, for any Defendant or any of Defendants' Online Marketplace Accounts or websites, shall within two (2) business days of receipt of this Order:
 - a. Locate all accounts and funds connected to Defendants, or Defendants' Online Marketplace Accounts, including, but not limited to, any accounts connected to the information listed in Schedule A hereto or the email addresses identified in Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Robert Andrew Ffrench; and
 - b. Restrain and enjoin such accounts from receiving, transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendants' assets until further ordered by this Court.
7. Ffrench may provide notice of these proceedings to Defendants, including notice of the preliminary injunction hearing and service of process pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 4(f)(3), by electronically publishing a link to the Complaint, this Order and other relevant documents on a website, or by sending an e-mail to the e-mail addresses identified in Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Robert Andrew Ffrench and any e-mail addresses provided for Defendants by third parties that includes a link to said website. The Clerk of Court is directed to issue a single original summons in the name of “Foshan city star rubber products co., LTD and all other Defendants identified in Complaint” that shall apply to all Defendants. The combination of providing notice via electronic publication and e-mail, along with any notice that Defendants receive from Online Marketplace Accounts and payment processors, shall constitute notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defendants of the pendency of the action and afford them the opportunity to present their objections.

8. Any Defendants that are subject to this Order may appear and move to dissolve or modify the Order on two days' notice to Ffrench or on shorter notice as set by this Court.
9. The $10,000 bond posted by Ffrench shall remain with the Court until a Final disposition of this case or until this Preliminary Injunction is terminated.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 20-60982-CIV-DIMITROULEAS/SNOW

THIS CAUSE came before the Court upon Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, and Order Restraining Transfer of Assets (the "Application") [DE 6], filed herein on May 20, 2020. R. Civ. P. 65, and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

For the reasons set forth herein, Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order [DE 6] is GRANTED.

(See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 10-11; see also United States Trademark Registrations of the YELLOW SUBMARINE Mark at issue attached as Composite Exhibit 2 to the Complaint.) The YELLOW SUBMARINE Mark is used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of quality goods in the categories identified above. (See id.)

Defendants, by operating a commercial Internet website under the domain name or e-commerce stores via the Internet marketplace platforms under their seller identification names identified on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs”), have advertised, promoted, offered for sale, or sold goods bearing what Plaintiffs have determined to be counterfeits, infringements, reproductions and/or colorable imitations of the BEATLES Marks and/or the YELLOW SUBMARINE Mark (collectively “Plaintiffs’ Marks”). (See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 16-20; Declaration of Stephen M. Gaffigan in Support of Plaintiffs’ Application for Temporary Restraining Order (“Gaffigan Decl.”) ¶ 2; Declaration of Kathleen Burns in Support of Plaintiffs’ Application for Temporary Restraining Order (Burns Decl.”) ¶ 4.)

Although each Defendant may not copy and infringe each of Plaintiffs’ Marks for each category of goods protected, Plaintiffs have submitted sufficient evidence showing that each Defendant has infringed, at least, one or more of Plaintiffs’ Marks. (See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 16-20.) Defendants are not now, nor have they ever been, authorized or licensed to use, reproduce, or make counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of Plaintiffs' Marks. (See id. ¶¶ 16, 18-20, 23.)

Plaintiffs' counsel retained Invisible Inc ("Invisible"), a licensed private investigative firm, to investigate the promotion and sale of counterfeit and infringing versions of Plaintiffs' branded products by Defendants and to obtain the available payment account data for receipt of funds paid to Defendants for the sale of counterfeit versions of Plaintiffs' branded products. (See Cole Decl. ¶ 17; Burns Decl. ¶ 3; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 2.) Invisible accessed Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs and placed orders from each Defendant for the purchase of various products, all bearing counterfeits of, at least, one of Plaintiffs' trademarks at issue in this action, and requested each product to be shipped to Invisible's address in the Southern District of Florida. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 and Comp. Exs. 1 through 6 thereto.) Each order was processed entirely online, and following the submission of the orders, Invisible received information for finalizing payment² for the various products ordered via Amazon Payments, Inc.,³ via DHpay.com,⁴ via PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal")⁵ to

³ Amazon is an e-commerce marketplace that allows Defendants to conduct their commercial transactions privately via Amazon's payment processing and retention service, Amazon Payments, Inc. As such, Defendants' payment information is not publicly disclosed, but Amazon Payments, Inc. has the ability to identify and restrain the payment accounts using a seller's unique seller identification number. (See Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 5; Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.2.)

⁴ Defendant Numbers 30-53 use the non-party e-commerce marketplace platform, DHgate.com, which processes its payments via the third-party platform, DHpay.com. The DHgate.com and DHpay.com platforms are operated by the Dunhuang Group, who utilizes Camel FinTech Inc to process transactions and deal with refunds and chargebacks on behalf of DHgate.com to its customers. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.3; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 6.)

⁵ Upon completion of Invisible's purchase from Defendant Number 68 operating via eBay.com, Invisible discovered that the PayPal receipt received did not identify the Defendant's PayPal financial account in the form of an e-mail address. However, the receipt identifies the

Defendants' respective PayPal accounts and/or via Defendants' respective payee,⁶ which are identified on Schedule "A" hereto.⁷ (See id.) At the conclusion of the process, the detailed web page captures⁸ and images of the various Plaintiffs' branded products ordered via Defendants' Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs were sent to Plaintiffs' representative, Paul Cole, for inspection. (See Cole Decl. ¶ 18; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs' representative reviewed and visually inspected the detailed web page captures reflecting Plaintiffs' branded products Invisible ordered from Defendants through the Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under their respective Subject Domain Name and Sellers IDs, and determined the products were not genuine versions of Plaintiffs' goods. (See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 18-20.)

Transaction Identification Number ("Transaction ID") for the purchase made from this Defendant's Seller IDs, and PayPal is able to identify a PayPal account using the Transaction ID. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.4.)

⁶ The payee for the orders placed from Defendant Numbers 79-105 identifies "Joom USA Inc," which is the aggregate PayPal account for purchases made via Joom.com. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 n.5; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 8.) The Joom.com platform itself is not the ultimate merchant, but it can tie a particular Seller ID using the seller's unique merchant identification number to a reported transaction and identify the merchant's funds held within the aggregate account. (See Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 8.)

The payee for the orders placed from Defendant Numbers 106-109's Wish.com Seller IDs identifies "PayPal *Wish," which is the aggregate PayPal account for purchases made Wish.com. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 n.5; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 9.) The Wish.com platform itself is not the ultimate merchant, but it can tie a particular Seller ID using the seller's unique merchant identification number to a reported transaction and identify the merchant's funds held within the aggregate account. (See Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 9.)

⁷ Defendant Number 1 also provided a contact e-mail address in connection with its Subject Domain Name, which is included on Schedule "A" hereto. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 n.6.)

⁸ The web pages captured and downloaded by Plaintiffs' counsel's office, Stephen M. Gaffigan, P.A., identifying the Seller Identification Number, Store Name and/or Store Number for certain Defendants are included in Comp. Exs. "2," "3" and "5" to the Burns Decl.

II. Legal Standard

In order to obtain a temporary restraining order, a party must demonstrate “(1) [there is] a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) that irreparable injury will be suffered if the relief is not granted; (3) that the threatened injury outweighs the harm the relief would inflict on the non-movant; and (4) that the entry of the relief would serve the public interest.” Schiavo ex. rel Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225–26 (11th Cir. 2005); see also Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Int’l. Trading Inc., 51 F. 3d 982, 985 (11th Cir. 1995) (applying the test to a preliminary injunction in a Lanham Act case). Additionally, a court may only issue a temporary restraining order without notice to the adverse party or its attorney if:

(A) specific facts in an affidavit or a verified complaint clearly show that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition [and] (B) the movant’s attorney certifies in writing any efforts made to give notice and the reasons why it should not be required.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b)(1). Ex parte temporary restraining orders “should be restricted to serving their underlying purpose of preserving the status quo and preventing irreparable harm just so long as is necessary to hold a hearing, and no longer.” Granny Goose Foods, Inc. v. Brotherhood of Teamsters & Auto Truck Drivers Local No. 70 of Alameda Cnty, 415 U.S. 423, 439 (1974).

III. Conclusions of Law

The declarations Plaintiffs submitted in support of their Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order support the following conclusions of law:

A. Plaintiffs have a strong probability of proving at trial that consumers are likely to be confused by Defendants’ advertisement, promotion, sale, offer for sale, or distribution of goods bearing counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of Plaintiffs’ Marks, and that the products Defendants are selling and promoting for sale are copies of Plaintiffs’ products that bear copies of Plaintiffs’ Marks.

B. Because of the infringement of Plaintiffs' Marks, Plaintiffs are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable injury if a temporary restraining order is not granted. The following specific facts, as set forth in Plaintiffs' Complaint, Application for Temporary Restraining Order, and accompanying declarations, demonstrate that immediate and irreparable loss, damage, and injury will result to the Plaintiffs and to consumers before Defendants can be heard in opposition unless Plaintiffs' request for ex parte relief is granted:

1. Defendants own or control a commercial Internet website or e-commerce stores via Internet marketplace platforms operating under their domain name and seller identification names which advertise, promote, offer for sale, and sell products bearing counterfeit and infringing trademarks in violation of Plaintiffs' rights;

2. There is good cause to believe that more counterfeit and infringing products bearing Plaintiffs' trademarks will appear in the marketplace; that consumers are likely to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of these products; and that Plaintiffs may suffer loss of sales for their genuine products; and

3. There is good cause to believe that if Plaintiffs proceed on notice to the Defendants on this Application for Temporary Restraining Order, Defendants can easily and quickly transfer or modify domain registration or e-commerce store data and content, change payment accounts, redirect consumer traffic to other domain names and seller identification names, and transfer assets and ownership of the domain names and seller identification names, thereby thwarting Plaintiffs' ability to obtain meaningful relief;

C. The balance of potential harm to Defendants in restraining their trade in counterfeit and infringing branded goods if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiffs, their respective reputations, and their goodwill as manufacturers and distributors of quality products, if such relief is not issued.

D. The public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order to protect Plaintiffs' trademark interests and protect the public from being defrauded by the palming off of counterfeit products as Plaintiffs' genuine goods.

E. Under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), Plaintiffs may be entitled to recover, as an equitable remedy, the illegal profits gained through Defendants' distribution and sales of goods bearing counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiffs' Marks. See Reebok Int'l, Ltd. v. Marnatech Enters., Inc., 970 F.2d 552, 559 (9th Cir. 1992) (quoting Fuller Brush Products Co. v. Fuller Brush Co., 299 F.2d 772, 777 (7th Cir. 1962) ("An accounting of profits under § 1117(a) is not synonymous with an award of monetary damages: '[a]n accounting for profits . . . is an equitable remedy subject to the principles of equity.'")).

F. Requesting equitable relief "invokes the district court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary relief, including an asset freeze, in order to assure the availability of permanent relief." Levi Strauss & Co., 51 F.3d at 987 (citing Federal Trade Commission v. United States Oil and Gas Corp., 748 F.2d 1431, 1433-34 (11th Cir. 1984)).

G. In light of the inherently deceptive nature of the counterfeiting business, and the likelihood that Defendants have violated federal trademark laws, Plaintiffs have good reason to believe Defendants will hide or transfer their ill-gotten assets beyond the jurisdiction of this Court unless those assets are restrained.

Upon review of Plaintiffs' Complaint, Application for Temporary Restraining Order, and supporting evidentiary submissions, it is hereby

ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Application for Temporary Restraining Order [DE 6] is GRANTED, according to the terms set forth below:

(6) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendants and all financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, Amazon Payments, Inc. opposed to ongoing account activity, held or received for their benefit or to be transferred into their respective financial accounts, and any other financial accounts tied thereto; and (iv) immediately divert those restrained funds to a holding account for the trust of the Court;

(7) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendants and all financial institutions, payment processors, bank, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms receiving notice of this Order, including but not limited to, Amazon, Dunhuang Group, Camel FinTech Inc, PayPal, Joom, ContextLogic, and their related companies and affiliates, shall further, within five business days of receiving this Order, provide Plaintiffs' counsel with all data that details (i) an accounting of the total funds restrained and identify the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which the restrained funds are related to, and (ii) the account transactions related to all funds transmitted into the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which have been restrained. (8) Any Defendant or financial institution account holder subject to this Order may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order;

(9) This Order shall apply to the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs, associated website and e-commerce stores, and any other domain names, websites, seller identification names, e-commerce stores, or financial accounts which are being used by the Defendants for the purpose of counterfeiting Plaintiffs' Marks at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with the Plaintiffs;

SEALED ORDER AUTHORIZING ALTERNATE SERVICE OF PROCESS ON DEFENDANTS PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 4(f)(3)

THIS CAUSE is before the Court upon Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Motion for Order Authorizing Alternate Service of Process on Defendants Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(f)(3) (the "Motion") [DE 7], filed herein on May 20, 2020. The Court has carefully considered the Motion and is otherwise fully advised in the premises.

Plaintiffs seek an order granting alternative service of process on the Defendants in this action, all of which are foreign. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants have established Internet-based businesses and utilize electronic means as reliable forms of contact. Therefore, Plaintiffs seek to serve these Defendants by both e-mail and website posting.

Rule 4(h)(2) for the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the "Rules") defines the contours of service upon foreign corporations and incorporates the service methods set forth regarding individuals in Rule 4(f). Rule 4(f)(3), in turn, provides that service may be accomplished "by other means not prohibited by international agreement, as the court orders." Alternative methods of service under Rule 4(f)(3) are available without first attempting service by other means. Rio

Props., Inc. v. Rio Int'l Interlink, 284 F.3d 1007, 1015 (9th Cir. 2002). “So especially in a circumstance where service upon a foreign corporation under Rule 4(f)(1) or 4(f)(2) has been cumbersome, district courts have broad discretion under Rule 4(f)(3) to authorize other methods of service that are consistent with due process and are not prohibited by international agreements.” Brookshire Brothers, Ltd. v. Chiquita Brands Int'l, Inc., Case No. 05-CIV-21962, 2007 WL 1577771, at *2 (S.D. Fla. May 31, 2007) (citing Prewitt Enters., Inc. v. Org. of Petroleum Exporting Countries, 353 F.3d 916, 921, 927 (11th Cir. 2003)).

For the following reasons, the Court finds that alternative service of process under Rule 4(f)(3) is warranted. First, the Hague Convention does not specifically preclude service by e-mail and website posting. Where a signatory nation has objected to the alternative means of service provided by the Hague Convention, that objection is expressly limited to those means and does not represent an objection to other forms of service, such e-mail or website posting. Stat Med. Devices, Inc. v. HTL-Strefa, Inc., Case No. 15-cv-20590-FAM, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 122000 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 14, 2015) (noting that an objection to the alternative forms of service set forth in the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters, Nov. 15, 1965, 658 U.N.T.S. 16, is limited to the specific forms of service objected to). A court acting under Rule 4(f)(3) therefore remains free to order alternative means of service where a signatory nation has not expressly objected to those means. See Gurung v. Malhotra, 279 F.R.D. 215, 219 (S.D.N.Y. 2011). Accordingly, the requested service methods are not prohibited by international agreement.

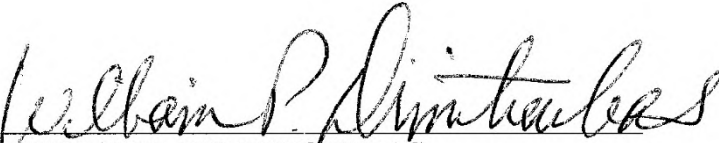

Second, Defendants have at least one known and valid form of electronic contact, and Plaintiffs have created a website for the sole purpose of providing notice of this action to Defendants, the address to which will be provided to Defendants' known e-mail accounts and onsite contact forms. Therefore, service via e-mail and through website posting is “reasonably calculated, under all circumstances, to apprise [Defendants] of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” See Brookshire Brothers, Ltd., 2007 WL 1577771, at *1. Thus, the Court will exercise its discretion to allow service on Defendants through e-mail and website posting.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. The Motion [DE 7] is hereby GRANTED;
2. Pursuant to Rule 4(f)(3), Plaintiffs are permitted to serve the Summonses, Complaint, and all other filings and discovery in this matter upon each Defendant:
 - a. by providing the address to Plaintiffs’ designated serving notice website to Defendants via the e-mail accounts provided by each Defendant as part of the data related to its e-commerce store or website, including customer service e-mail addresses and onsite contact forms, or via the e-commerce platform e-mail for each of the e-commerce stores or registrar of record for the domain name. See Schedule “A” attached to the Motion [DE 7], which lists Defendants’ Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs and associated means of contact; and
 - b. by publicly posting a copy of the Summonses, Complaint, and all filings and discovery in this matter on Plaintiffs’ designated serving notice website appearing at <http://servingnotice.com/awoa7y/index.html>.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

THIS CAUSE came before the Court upon Plaintiffs' Application for Entry of Preliminary Injunction (the "Application") [DE 6]. The Court has carefully reviewed the Application and the record and is otherwise fully advised in the premises.

By the instant Application, Plaintiffs, Apple Corps Limited and Subafilms Limited (collectively "Plaintiffs") move for entry of a preliminary injunction against Defendants, the Individuals, Partnerships, and Unincorporated Associations Identified on Schedule "A" hereto (collectively "Defendants"), pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 65, and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

The Court convened a hearing on June 12, 2020, at which only counsel for Plaintiffs was present and available to present evidence supporting the Application. The YELLOW SUBMARINE Mark is used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of quality goods in the categories identified above. (See id.)

Defendants, by operating a commercial Internet website under the domain name or e-commerce stores via the Internet marketplace platforms under their seller identification names identified on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs”), have advertised, promoted, offered for sale, or sold goods bearing what Plaintiffs have determined to be counterfeits, infringements, reproductions and/or colorable imitations of the BEATLES Marks and/or the YELLOW SUBMARINE Mark (collectively “Plaintiffs’ Marks”). (See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 16-20; Declaration of Stephen M. Gaffigan in Support of Plaintiffs’ Application for Preliminary Injunction (“Gaffigan Decl.”) ¶ 2; Declaration of Kathleen Burns in Support of Plaintiffs’ Application for Preliminary Injunction (Burns Decl.) ¶ 4.)

Although each Defendant may not copy and infringe each of Plaintiffs’ Marks for each category of goods protected, Plaintiffs have submitted sufficient evidence showing that each Defendant has infringed, at least, one or more of Plaintiffs’ Marks. (See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 16-20.) Defendants are not now, nor have they ever been, authorized or licensed to use, reproduce, or make counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of Plaintiffs' Marks. (See id. ¶¶ 16, 18-20, 23.)

Plaintiffs' counsel retained Invisible Inc ("Invisible"), a licensed private investigative firm, to investigate the promotion and sale of counterfeit and infringing versions of Plaintiffs' branded products by Defendants and to obtain the available payment account data for receipt of funds paid to Defendants for the sale of counterfeit versions of Plaintiffs' branded products. (See Cole Decl. ¶ 17; Burns Decl. ¶ 3; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 2.) Invisible accessed Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs and placed orders from each Defendant for the purchase of various products, all bearing counterfeits of, at least, one of Plaintiffs' trademarks at issue in this action, and requested each product to be shipped to Invisible's address in the Southern District of Florida. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 and Comp. Exs. 1 through 6 thereto.) Each order was processed entirely online, and following the submission of the orders, Invisible received information for finalizing payment² for the various products ordered via Amazon Payments, Inc.,³ via DHpay.com,⁴ via PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal")⁵ to

³ Amazon is an e-commerce marketplace that allows Defendants to conduct their commercial transactions privately via Amazon's payment processing and retention service, Amazon Payments, Inc. As such, Defendants' payment information is not publicly disclosed, but Amazon Payments, Inc. has the ability to identify and restrain the payment accounts using a seller's unique seller identification number. (See Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 5; Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.2.)

⁴ Defendant Numbers 30-53 use the non-party e-commerce marketplace platform, DHgate.com, which processes its payments via the third-party platform, DHpay.com. The DHgate.com and DHpay.com platforms are operated by the Dunhuang Group, who utilizes Camel FinTech Inc to process transactions and deal with refunds and chargebacks on behalf of DHgate.com to its customers. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.3; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 6.)

⁵ Upon completion of Invisible's purchase from Defendant Number 68 operating via eBay.com, Invisible discovered that the PayPal receipt received did not identify the Defendant's PayPal

Defendants' respective PayPal accounts and/or via Defendants' respective payee,⁶ which are identified on Schedule "A" hereto.⁷ (See id.) At the conclusion of the process, the detailed web page captures⁸ and images of the various Plaintiffs' branded products ordered via Defendants' Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs were sent to Plaintiffs' representative, Paul Cole, for inspection. (See Cole Decl. ¶ 18; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs' representative reviewed and visually inspected the detailed web page captures reflecting Plaintiffs' branded products Invisible ordered from Defendants through the Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under their respective Subject Domain Name and Sellers IDs, and determined the products were not genuine versions of Plaintiffs' goods. (See Cole Decl. ¶¶ 18-20.)

financial account in the form of an e-mail address. However, the receipt identifies the Transaction Identification Number ("Transaction ID") for the purchase made from this Defendant's Seller IDs, and PayPal is able to identify a PayPal account using the Transaction ID. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4, n.4.)

⁶ The payee for the orders placed from Defendant Numbers 79-105 identifies "Joom USA Inc," which is the aggregate PayPal account for purchases made via Joom.com. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 n.5; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 8.) The Joom.com platform itself is not the ultimate merchant, but it can tie a particular Seller ID using the seller's unique merchant identification number to a reported transaction and identify the merchant's funds held within the aggregate account. (See Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 8.)

The payee for the orders placed from Defendant Numbers 106-109's Wish.com Seller IDs identifies "PayPal *Wish," which is the aggregate PayPal account for purchases made Wish.com. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 n.5; Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 9.) The Wish.com platform itself is not the ultimate merchant, but it can tie a particular Seller ID using the seller's unique merchant identification number to a reported transaction and identify the merchant's funds held within the aggregate account. (See Gaffigan Decl. ¶ 9.)

⁷ Defendant Number 1 also provided a contact e-mail address in connection with its Subject Domain Name, which is included on Schedule "A" hereto. (See Burns Decl. ¶ 4 n.6.)

⁸ The web pages captured and downloaded by Plaintiffs' counsel's office, Stephen M. Gaffigan, P.A., identifying the Seller Identification Number, Store Name and/or Store Number for certain Defendants are included in Comp. Exs. "2," "3" and "5" to the Burns Decl.

On May 19, 2020, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint [DE 1] and thereafter their Amended Complaint on June 1, 2020 [DE 18] against Defendants for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement, false designation of origin, common law unfair competition, and common law trademark infringement. On May 20, 2020, Plaintiffs filed their Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, and Order Restraining Transfer of Assets [DE 6]. On May 21, 2020, this Court entered an Order Granting Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining Order (the “TRO”) [DE 9] and temporarily restrained Defendants from infringing Plaintiffs’ Marks at issue. Pursuant to the Court’s May 21, 2020 TRO, Plaintiffs properly served Defendants with a copy of the Amended Complaint, and all filings in this matter, and the Court’s May 21, 2020 TRO [see DE Nos. 21 and 22]. On June 12, 2020, the Court conducted a hearing on Plaintiffs’ Application, at which only counsel for Plaintiffs was in attendance.

II. Legal Standard

In order to obtain a preliminary injunction, a party must demonstrate “(1) [there is] a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) that irreparable injury will be suffered if the relief is not granted; (3) that the threatened injury outweighs the harm the relief would inflict on the non-movant; and (4) that the entry of the relief would serve the public interest.” Schiavo ex. rel Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225–26 (11th Cir. 2005); see also Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Int’l. Trading Inc., 51 F. 3d 982, 985 (11th Cir. 1995) (applying the test to a preliminary injunction in a Lanham Act case).

III. Conclusions of Law

The declarations Plaintiffs submitted in support of their Application for Preliminary Injunction support the following conclusions of law:

A. Plaintiffs have a strong probability of proving at trial that consumers are likely to be confused by Defendants' advertisement, promotion, sale, offer for sale, or distribution of goods bearing counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of Plaintiffs' Marks, and that the products Defendants are selling and promoting for sale are copies of Plaintiffs' products that bear copies of Plaintiffs' Marks.

B. Because of the infringement of Plaintiffs' Marks, Plaintiffs are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable injury if a preliminary injunction is not granted. The following specific facts, as set forth in Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, Application for Preliminary Injunction, and accompanying declarations, demonstrate that immediate and irreparable loss, damage, and injury will result to the Plaintiffs and to consumers because it is more likely than not that:

1. Defendants own or control a commercial Internet website or e-commerce stores via Internet marketplace platforms operating under their domain name and seller identification names which advertise, promote, offer for sale, and sell products bearing counterfeit and infringing trademarks in violation of Plaintiffs' rights; and

2. There is good cause to believe that more counterfeit and infringing products bearing Plaintiffs' trademarks will appear in the marketplace; that consumers are likely to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of these products; and that Plaintiffs may suffer loss of sales for their genuine products.

C. The balance of potential harm to Defendants in restraining their trade in counterfeit and infringing branded goods if a preliminary injunction is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiffs, their respective reputations, and their goodwill as manufacturers and distributors of quality products, if such relief is not issued.

D. The public interest favors issuance of the preliminary injunction to protect Plaintiffs' trademark interests and protect the public from being defrauded by the palming off of counterfeit products as Plaintiffs' genuine goods.

E. Under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), Plaintiffs may be entitled to recover, as an equitable remedy, the illegal profits gained through Defendants' distribution and sales of goods bearing counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiffs' Marks. See Reebok Int'l, Ltd. v. Marnatech Enters., Inc., 970 F.2d 552, 559 (9th Cir. 1992) (quoting Fuller Brush Products Co. v. Fuller Brush Co., 299 F.2d 772, 777 (7th Cir. 1962) ("An accounting of profits under § 1117(a) is not synonymous with an award of monetary damages: '[a]n accounting for profits . . . is an equitable remedy subject to the principles of equity.'")).

F. Requesting equitable relief "invokes the district court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary relief, including an asset freeze, in order to assure the availability of permanent relief." Levi Strauss & Co., 51 F.3d at 987 (citing Federal Trade Commission v. United States Oil and Gas Corp., 748 F.2d 1431, 1433-34 (11th Cir. 1984)).

G. In light of the inherently deceptive nature of the counterfeiting business, and the likelihood that Defendants have violated federal trademark laws, Plaintiffs have good reason to believe Defendants will hide or transfer their ill-gotten assets beyond the jurisdiction of this Court unless those assets are restrained.

Upon review of Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, Application for Preliminary Injunction, and supporting evidentiary submissions, it is hereby

ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Application for Preliminary Injunction [DE 6] is GRANTED, according to the terms set forth below:

(1) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order are hereby restrained and enjoined until further Order of this Court:

- a. From manufacturing, importing, advertising, promoting, offering to sell, selling, distributing, or transferring any products bearing Plaintiffs' Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, other than those actually manufactured or distributed by the Plaintiffs; and
- b. From secreting, concealing, destroying, selling off, transferring, or otherwise disposing of: (i) any products, not manufactured or distributed by the Plaintiffs, bearing Plaintiffs' Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; or (ii) any evidence relating to the manufacture, importation, sale, offer for sale, distribution, or transfer of any products bearing Plaintiffs' Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; or (iii) any assets or other financial accounts subject to this Order, including inventory assets, in the actual or constructive possession of, or owned, controlled, or held by, or subject to access by, any Defendant, including, but not limited to, any assets held by or on behalf of any Defendant.

(2) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue, until further Order of this Court, the use of Plaintiffs' Marks or any confusingly similar trademarks, on or in connection with all Internet websites and Internet based e-commerce stores owned and operated, or controlled by them, including the Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs;

(3) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue, until further Order of this Court, the use of Plaintiffs' Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks within metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any webpage (including as the title of any web page), from any advertising links to other websites, from search engines' databases or cache memory, and any other form of use of such terms that are visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches to Internet websites and Internet based e-commerce stores registered, owned, or operated by any Defendant, including the Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs;

(4) Each Defendant shall not transfer ownership of the Internet website or Internet based e-commerce stores operating under their Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs during the pendency of this action, or until further order of the Court;

(5) Each Defendant shall continue to preserve copies of all computer files relating to the use of the Internet website and any of the Internet based e-commerce stores operating under their Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs and shall take all steps necessary to retrieve computer files relating to the use of the Internet website or Internet based e-commerce stores under their Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs that may have been deleted before the entry of this Order;

(6) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendants and all financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms, including but not limited to, Amazon Payments, Inc. ("Amazon"), Dunhuang Group (which operates the DHgate.com and DHPay.com platforms), Camel FinTech Inc, PayPal, Inc. ("PayPal"), SIA Joom, which operates the Joom.com platform ("Joom"), ContextLogic, Inc.,

which operates the Wish.com website (“ContextLogic”), and their related companies and affiliates shall, to the extent not already done, (i) immediately identify all financial accounts and/or sub-accounts, associated with the Internet website and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs, merchant identification numbers, and/or the e-mail addresses identified on Schedule “A” hereto, as well as any other accounts of the same customer(s); (ii) identify all other accounts which transfer funds into the same financial institution account(s) or any of the other financial accounts subject to this Order; (iii) restrain the transfer of all funds, as opposed to ongoing account activity, held or received for their benefit or to be transferred into their respective financial accounts, and any other financial accounts tied thereto; and (iv) immediately divert those restrained funds to a holding account for the trust of the Court;

(7) Upon receipt of notice of this Order, Defendants and all financial institutions, payment processors, bank, escrow services, money transmitters, or marketplace platforms receiving notice of this Order, including but not limited to, Amazon, Dunhuang Group, Camel FinTech Inc, PayPal, Joom, ContextLogic, and their related companies and affiliates, shall further, to the extent not already done, provide Plaintiffs’ counsel with all data that details (i) an accounting of the total funds restrained and identify the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which the restrained funds are related to, and (ii) the account transactions related to all funds transmitted into the financial account(s) and sub-account(s) which have been restrained. No funds restrained by this Order shall be transferred or surrendered by any financial institution, payment processor, bank, escrow service, money transmitter, or marketplace website, including but not limited to, Amazon, Dunhuang Group, Camel FinTech Inc, PayPal, Joom, ContextLogic, and their related companies and affiliates for any purpose (other than pursuant to a chargeback made pursuant to their security interest in the funds) without the express authorization of this Court;

(8) Any Defendant or financial institution account holder subject to this Order may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order;

(9) This Order shall apply to the Subject Domain Name and Seller IDs, associated website and e-commerce stores, and any other domain names, websites, seller identification names, e-commerce stores, or financial accounts which are being used by the Defendants for the purpose of counterfeiting Plaintiffs' Marks at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with the Plaintiffs;

(10) Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116(d)(5)(D) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(c), Plaintiffs shall maintain their previously posted bond in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00), as payment of damages to which Defendants may be entitled for a wrongful injunction or restraint, during the pendency of this action, or until further Order of the Court. In the Court's discretion, the bond may be subject to increase should an application be made in the interest of justice;

(11) Additionally, for the purpose of providing additional notice of this proceeding, and all other pleadings, orders, and documents filed herein, the owners, operators and/or administrators of the Internet marketplace websites, and/or financial institutions, payment processors, banks, escrow services, money transmitters, and marketplace platforms, including but not limited to Amazon.com, DHgate.com, eBay.com, Joom.com, Wish.com and ContextLogic, shall, at Plaintiffs' request, provide Plaintiffs' counsel with any e-mail address known to be associated with the Defendants' respective Seller IDs;

(12) This Order shall remain in effect during the pendency of this action, or until such further date as set by the Court or stipulated by the parties.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers in Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida, this 12th day of June, 2020.

On this day, the Court considered Plaintiff's ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining Merchant Storefronts and Defendants' Assets with the Financial Institutions; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants, Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions in light of Defendants' intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products.¹ A complete list of Defendants is attached hereto as Schedule A, which also includes links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings. Having reviewed the Application, Declarations of Jessica Arnaiz, You Jae Kang and Brienne Scully, along with exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Smart is a global entertainment company specializing in developing animated and gaming content to deliver high-quality entertainment. Headquartered in Seoul, South Korea, Smart currently has 220 employees and offices in Los Angeles, Shanghai and Hong Kong. Smart has developed award-winning brands including "Pinkfong", "Monster Super League", "JellyKing" and "Tamago Monsters".

2. Through Smart's preschool brand, Pinkfong, the company produces modern-day songs and stories to provide stimulating and fun learning experiences to children. One of Smart's most successful creations is the Pinkfong "Baby Shark" song and viral music video with characters, which to date has amassed nearly 3.1 billion views on YouTube and debuted at No. 32 on the Billboard Hot 100 Chart.

¹ Where a defined term is referenced herein and not defined herein, the defined term should be understood as it is defined in the Glossary.

3. Smart has developed and initiated an extensive worldwide licensing program for a wide variety of consumer products such as toys, sound books and t-shirts associated with and/or related to the BABY SHARK and PINKFONG trademarks and the Baby Shark Content.

4. While Plaintiff has gained significant common law trademark and other rights in its Baby Shark Content and Baby Shark Products, through use, advertising and promotion, Plaintiff has also protected its valuable rights by filing for and obtaining federal trademark registrations.

5. For example, Plaintiff owns the Baby Shark Marks, including U.S. Trademark Registrations Nos.: 5,803,108 for “BABY SHARK” for a variety of goods in Class 28; 5,483,744 for “PINKFONG” for a variety of goods in Classes 3 and 21; 5,327,527 for “PINKFONG” for a variety of goods in Classes 9, 16 and 28; and 4,993,122 for “PINKFONG” a variety of goods in Classes 9 and 25. Additionally, Smart is the owner of U.S. Trademark Serial Application Nos.: 79/253,035 for “BABY SHARK” for a variety of goods in Classes 41, 25, 16 and 9; 88/046,099 for “PINKFONG BABY SHARK” for a variety of goods in Class 28; 79/252,869 for “PINKFONG” for a variety of goods in Class 41; 79/249,403 for “PINKFONG BABY SHARK” for a variety of goods in Classes 24 and 21; and 88/396,786 for “PINKFONG BABY SHARK” for a variety of goods in Class 25.

6. The Baby Shark Marks are currently in use in commerce in connection with the Baby Shark Content and Baby Shark Products.

7. In addition, Plaintiff also owns the registered copyrights related to the Baby Shark Content and Baby Shark Products. For example, Plaintiff owns the Baby Shark Works, including U.S. Copyright Registrations Nos.: VA 2-130-856, covering Baby Shark; VA 2-130-847, covering Daddy Shark; VA 2-130-854, covering Mommy Shark; VA 2-131-983, covering Pink Fong Mascot; SR 823-609, covering Baby Shark (Sound Recording and Music); PA 2-142-905, covering Baby Shark (Motion Picture).

8. Defendants are manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale or Counterfeit Product through Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts with Alibaba and AliExpress (see Schedule A for links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings);

9. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors or licensees of the Baby Shark Products. Neither Plaintiff, nor any of Plaintiff's authorized agents, have consented to Defendants' use of the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks, nor has Plaintiff consented to Defendants' use of marks and/or artwork that are confusingly and/or substantially similar to, identical to and constitute a counterfeiting or infringement of the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks;

10. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act, copyright and related common law claims at trial;

11. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products that infringe the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks;
- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its Baby Shark Products; and
- c. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if it proceeds on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from its sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts and Merchant Storefront under new or different names and continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence;

12. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks and to its reputations if a temporary restraining order is not issued;

13. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Baby Shark Products;

14. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way;

15. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.

16. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Baby Shark Works and/or Baby Shark Marks. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes the Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts and it is anticipated that it will take the Third Party Service Providers a minimum of five (5) days to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers with this Order, and for the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.

17. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.

- 1) secreting, concealing, transferring, disposing of, withdrawing, encumbering or paying Defendants' Assets from or to Defendants' Financial Accounts until further ordered by this Court;
- 2) secreting, concealing, destroying, altering, selling off, transferring or otherwise disposing of and/or dealing with any computer files, data, business records, documents or any other records or evidence relating to Defendants' Assets and Defendants' Financial Accounts;

and

- 3) knowingly instructing any person or business entity to engage in any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs I(A)(1) through I(A)(7) and I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) above and I(C)(1) below.

C. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as sufficient cause has been shown, that the Third Party Service Providers are hereby restrained and enjoined from engaging in any of the following acts or omissions pending the hearing and determination of Plaintiff's Application for a preliminary injunction as referenced in Paragraph (II)(A) below, or until further order of the Court:

- 1) within five (5) days after receipt of service of this Order, providing services to Defendants, Defendants' User Accounts and Defendants' Merchant Storefronts, including, without limitation, continued operation of Defendants' User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts;
and
- 2) knowingly instructing any other person or business entity to engage in any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs I(A)(1) through I(A)(7), I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) above.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
IN CONNECTION WITH PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

MARY KAY VYSKOCIL, United States District Judge:

Plaintiff, Smart Study Co., Ltd., commenced this copyright and trademark infringement action with the filing of its Complaint [ECF #6] on February 27, 2020. The case concerns the trademark and copyright rights to commercial use of the “Baby Shark” image and name. See Complaint ¶ 8-14. Baby Shark, as explained further below, is a worldwide sensation geared at toddlers and young children that has been marketed and licensed by Plaintiff following the release of a viral video on the internet in 2016. See Complaint ¶ 8-9. Plaintiff claims that Defendants, more than 100 individuals, companies, and other business entities, sell counterfeit Baby Shark products through Alibaba and AliExpress (Chinese marketplaces and e-commerce platforms), infringing on its intellectual property. See Complaint ¶¶ 26-27, 30-45.

On the same day the Complaint was filed, Plaintiff filed an application for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction [ECF #12-16] seeking to enjoin the sale of allegedly counterfeit Baby Shark products, which Plaintiff claims infringe on Plaintiff’s intellectual property rights. The temporary restraining order (“TRO”) was granted that day [ECF #21]. The TRO, inter alia, allowed alternative email service on Defendants, retailers who sell allegedly counterfeit products through internet retail platforms related to Chinese company Alibaba, and set dates for briefing and a hearing on the motion for a preliminary injunction. However, as a result of the global COVID-19 pandemic and the ensuing shutdown of most business in China, more time than originally allowed was needed to locate service email addresses for the Defendants. As a result, the Court modified the TRO to allow Plaintiff more time to serve the Defendants, and for the Defendants to file oppositions to the preliminary injunction motion. See ECF #18 at 1. On March 16, 2020, all Defendants were served,¹ see ECF #20, and oppositions from Defendants were due April 24, 2020. None were filed.

On May 5, 2020, the Court held a hearing on the application for a preliminary injunction. Only counsel for Plaintiff appeared; no representatives of any Defendant participated in the hearing or have appeared in this action. At the hearing, following argument and questioning of counsel for Plaintiff, the Court granted the motion for a preliminary injunction, and a written Order was entered shortly thereafter. See ECF #23 (the “Preliminary Injunction Order”). At the May 5 hearing, the Court summarized its findings of fact and conclusions of law which lead it to grant the injunction, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 52(a)(2), but noted a full opinion would follow.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

No Defendant has appeared in this action, and no opposition briefing was filed in advance of the May 5 hearing. Thus, the facts as stated in Plaintiff’s Complaint are undisputed. For the purposes of the motion for a preliminary injunction, the Court adopts all of the facts as stated in the Complaint and the papers in support of the motion. See Featherstone v. Barash, 345 F.2d 246, 250 (10th Cir. 1965) (“[I]f there is no dispute between the parties about the facts, allegations of the complaint may be accepted as true, thus eliminating the necessity of formal findings.”); Carpenters’ Dist. Council, Detroit, Wayne & Oakland Ctys. & Vicinity, of United Bhd. of Carpenters & Joiners of Am., AFL-CIO v. Cicci, 261 F.2d 5, 8 (6th Cir. 1958) (“It is true that if there is no dispute between the parties about the facts, the allegations of a complaint may be accepted as true, thus eliminating the necessity of formal findings . . .”). While not an exhaustive recitation, the Court summarizes the facts here.

Plaintiff is a South Korean company that develops entertainment and gaming content for a global audience. Complaint ¶ 7. Plaintiff produces content directed at preschool-aged children through a single brand, Pinkfong. Complaint ¶ 8. In 2016, Pinkfong released the “Baby Shark” song and music video on YouTube. Id. The song and video soon went viral, and today the video has over 3.1 billion views on YouTube. Complaint ¶ 8.² After the video’s release, Plaintiff developed a worldwide licensing program for Baby Shark products, including toys, clothing, and entertainment. Complaint ¶ 9. After the products were introduced to the market, Plaintiff also applied for and received various trademark and copyright registrations for Baby Shark and other related concepts like “Mommy Shark,” “Daddy Shark,” and “Baby Shark (Motion Picture).” Complaint ¶ 13, 15. Today, Baby Shark remains a widely popular brand for young children.

Defendants, who are individuals and business entities located in China, see Complaint ¶ 26, attempted to capitalize on the Baby Shark phenomenon by selling allegedly counterfeit Baby Shark products. Complaint ¶ 27. The products are sold on Alibaba and AliExpress, e-commerce platforms that allow merchants to sell goods to a global audience. Complaint ¶ 23. The sites annually have over $1 billion in sales internationally, including to the United States, see

² While the Complaint includes the 3.1 billion number, at the time this opinion is written, the original video has registered more than 5.2 billion YouTube views. See Pinkfong! Kids’ Songs & Stories, Baby Shark Dance / Sing and Dance! | @Baby Shark Official | PINKFONG Songs for Children, YouTube (June 17, 2016), <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XqZsoesa55w&vl=en>.

Complaint ¶ 24, but allegedly have also become known as a marketplace for counterfeit and trademark/copyright infringing goods. See Complaint ¶ 25. Confirming that reputation, Defendants here, rather than proceed through Plaintiff’s licensing program, manufactured, marketed, and sold Baby Shark products that appear to infringe on Plaintiff’s intellectual property. See Complaint ¶¶ 32, 37. Defendants’ products are of lower quality than those produced by Plaintiff and its licensees, and are sold at substantially lower prices, undercutting Plaintiff’s market-share and de-valuing Plaintiff’s intellectual property. Complaint ¶¶ 3, 11, 37-39.³

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Personal Jurisdiction

The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants. In reaching this conclusion, the Court applied a two-part analysis: first, the Court considered the law of the forum state to determine if jurisdiction is proper, and second, the Court considered whether exercise of jurisdiction is consistent with due process. Licci ex rel. Licci v. Lebanese Canadian Bank, SAL, 732 F.3d 161, 168 (2d Cir. 2013); see Bristol-Myers Squibb Co. v. Superior Court, -- U.S. --, 137 S. Ct. 1773, 1779 (2017) (“Because ‘[a] state court’s assertion of jurisdiction exposes defendants to the State’s coercive power,’ it is ‘subject to review for compatibility with the Fourteenth Amendment’s Due Process Clause,’ which ‘limits the power of a state court to render a valid personal judgment against a nonresident defendant.’” (citing Goodyear Dunlop Tires Operations, S.A. v. Brown, 564 U.S. 915, 918 (2011); World-Wide Volkswagen Corp. v. Woodson, 444 U.S. 286, 291 (1980))).

³ Since commencing the lawsuit, Plaintiff has been in contact with numerous Defendants, with whom they have reached resolutions of the claims in the Complaint. The Court has approved two notices of dismissal with respect to several Defendants.

New York's long arm statute, N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 302(a)(1), provides that a Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in New York based on business contacts where both "(1) The defendant [has] transacted business within the state; and (2) the claim asserted [] arise[s] from that business activity." Licci, 732 F.3d at 168 (citing Solè Resort, S.A. de C.V. v. Allure Resorts Mgmt., LLC, 450 F.3d 100, 103 (2d Cir. 2006)). The "transacted business" giving rise to jurisdiction must include "some purposeful activities within the State that would justify bringing the nondomiciliary defendant before the New York courts." DH Servs., LLC v. Positive Impact, Inc., No. 12-cv-6153 (RA), 2014 WL 496875, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 5, 2014) (citing SPCA of Upstate New York, Inc. v. American Working Collie Association, 18 N.Y.3d 400, 404 (2012)). Similarly, the "arising from" element requires "relatedness between the transaction and the legal claim such that the latter is not completely unmoored from the former." Licci, 732 F.3d at 168.

Both requirements are met here. Since the claims in Plaintiffs' complaint all arise from the sale of allegedly counterfeit and infringing goods, the only question for the Court under New York law is whether the Defendants do sell goods in this state (i.e. whether they transact business here). In Chloè v. Queen Bee of Beverly Hills, LLC, 616 F.3d 158 (2d Cir. 2010), the Second Circuit "update[d] [its] jurisprudence on personal jurisdiction in the age of internet commerce." Id. at 165. In Chloè, the Court endorsed a finding that a California resident was subject to New York jurisdiction where he sold a single allegedly trademark-infringing handbag (in addition to other non-infringing goods) over the internet into New York in his capacity as an employee of a company that sold other goods into the state. Id. at 166-67. The Court found that the Defendant's sale of bags generally into New York was sufficient to constitute "transacting business" and the sale of one bag subject to the suit was sufficiently related to the business. Id. at 167. While the full extent of Defendants sales into New York are unknown, their products are available for sale and shipment to New York. Indeed, to verify its allegation that Defendants transact business in New York, Plaintiff here purchased and received in New York several counterfeit Baby Shark products from approximately ten percent of Defendants. See Declaration of Jessica Arnaiz in Support of the Motion, ECF #14 (“Arnaiz Decl.”), Ex. B.⁴ These fourteen orders, where Plaintiff purchased one or more items, indicate that, at least with regard to these fourteen defendants, jurisdiction is proper in New York because they transact business here.

As for the other Defendants, and as an additional ground for jurisdiction over the fourteen Defendants from whom Plaintiff purchased products, jurisdiction is appropriate because Defendants operate a “highly interactive website” from which consumers in New York can purchase the allegedly infringing goods at issue here. See Chloè, 616 F.3d at 170 (collecting New York cases holding that an interactive commercial website accessible from New York constitutes transacting business for personal jurisdiction); Lifeguard Licensing Corp. v. Ann Arbor T-Shirt Co., LLC, No. 15-cv-8459 (LGS), 2016 WL 3748480, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. July 8, 2016) (“A website that does more than provide information about a product and allows customers to purchase goods online, is a “highly interactive website,” which may provide a basis for personal jurisdiction under CPLR § 302(a)). That the website Defendants operate is based on the Alibaba platform and that orders are processed by Alibaba, makes no difference, because Defendants operate on the platform as a regular business and not simply as occasional sellers. See Lifeguard Licensing Corp., 2016 WL 3748480, at *3 (“For internet sellers who use an internet storefront like Amazon, courts generally distinguish between two categories. First are commercial vendors who use it “as a means for establishing regular business with a remote forum.” Jurisdiction is proper as to these defendants. In the second category are occasional sellers who use an internet service once to sell goods to the highest bidder who happens to be in the forum state.” (citing EnviroCare Techs., LLC v. Simanovsky, No. 11-cv-3458 (JS)(ETB), 2012 WL 2001443, at *3 (E.D.N.Y. June 4, 2012))). Because all Defendants operate such a “highly interactive website” as a means to sell their products into New York, and because those websites are accessible in this state, personal jurisdiction over Defendants is appropriate.

Exercise of jurisdiction here is consistent with due process. “The due process inquiry consists of two components—the ‘minimum contacts’ inquiry and the ‘reasonableness’ inquiry.” McGraw-Hill Global Education Holdings, LLC v. Mathrani, 295 F. Supp. 3d 404, 413 (S.D.N.Y. 2017); accord Asahi Metal Indus. Co., Ltd. v. Superior Court, 480 U.S. 102, 112 (1987) (holding that courts should consider both minimum contacts and substantive reasonableness); see also Bristol-Myers Squibb, 137 S. Ct. at 1785-86 (Sotomayor, J., dissenting) (collecting cases). First, Defendants have purposely availed themselves of New York by marketing and selling products into New York through their internet storefronts. As a result, Defendants’ contacts with New York “satisfy the minimum contacts prong of the constitutional inquiry for the same reasons that they satisfy the statutory inquiry.” Mathrani, 295 F. Supp. 3d at 413 (citing Licci, 732 F.3d at 170 (noting that while “section 302(a)(1) . . . and constitutional due process are not coextensive,” cases in which personal jurisdiction is permitted under the long-arm statute but is prohibited under the due process analysis are “rare”).

Second, asserting jurisdiction here is reasonable. When a plaintiff has made a threshold showing of minimum contacts, the exercise of jurisdiction is favored, but may be overcome where the Defendants present “a compelling case that the presence of some other considerations would render jurisdiction unreasonable.” Metro. Life Ins. Co. v. Robertson-Ceco Corp., 84 F.3d 560, 568 (2d Cir. 1996) (citing Burger King v. Rudzewicz, 471 U.S. 462, 477-78 (1985)). Needless to say,

Defendants have not made any showing that jurisdiction is unreasonable here as they have elected not to appear. Cf. McGraw-Hill, 295 F. Supp. 3d at 414 (citing Peeq Media, LLC v. Buccheri, 2016 WL 5947295, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 13, 2016)). The Court will not endeavor to find additional hardships on the Defendant where they have not otherwise brought them forward; the Plaintiff's election of forum in this case is dispositive. Accord Asahi, 480 U.S. at 113-14 (holding that once minimum contacts are established, the plaintiff's interest in obtaining convenient and effective relief is among the factors that determine reasonableness).

Thus, personal jurisdiction over the Defendants is appropriate in New York.

B. Preliminary Injunction

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(a), a preliminary injunction is appropriate only if the movant shows: (1) a likelihood of success on the merits or sufficiently serious questions going to the merits to make them a fair ground for litigation and a balance of hardships tipping decidedly in the plaintiff's favor; (2) a likelihood of irreparable injury in the absence of an injunction; (3) that the balance of hardships tips in the plaintiff's favor; and (4) that the public interest would not be disserved by the issuance of an injunction.” Benihana, Inc. v. Benihana of Tokyo, LLC, 784 F.3d 887, 895 (2d Cir. 2015)); Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(a).

Plaintiff has demonstrated irreparable harm. “Irreparable harm exists in a trademark case when the party seeking the injunction shows that it will lose control over the reputation of its trademark . . . because loss of control over one's reputation is neither calculable nor precisely compensable.” U.S. Polo Ass'n, Inc. v. PRL USA Holdings, Inc., 800 F. Supp. 2d 515, 540 (S.D.N.Y. 2011) (alteration in original) (citing New York City Triathlon, LLC v. NYC Triathlon Club, Inc., 704 F. Supp. 2d 305, 343 (S.D.N.Y. 2010), aff'd, 511 F. App'x 81 (2d Cir. 2013)). As the undisputed facts in the Complaint allege, Defendants' actions have deprived Plaintiff of the ability to control the quality of the products using the Baby Shark name and image. See El Greco Leather Prods. Co. v. Shoe World, Inc., 806 F.2d 392, 395 (2d Cir. 1986) (“One of the most valuable and important protections afforded by the Lanham Act is the right to control the quality of the goods manufactured and sold under the holder’s trademark.”). Moreover, Defendants’ cheaper prices (as a result of the inferior materials) have resulted in devaluation of the marks themselves. See Declaration of You Jae Kang in Support of Motion, ECF #15 (“Kang Decl.”), ¶¶ 25-26, 28; Declaration of Brienne Scully in Support of Motion, ECF #16 (“Scully Decl.”), ¶ 21. These injuries are sufficient to constitute irreparable harm. See Zino Davidoff SA v. CVS Corp., 571 F.3d 238, 243-44. (2d Cir. 2009).⁵

Plaintiff also has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits of its trademark and copyright claims. On the trademark claims, Plaintiff needs to show that its marks are valid and entitled to protection and that Defendants’ use of the marks is likely to cause confusion. Tiffany (NJ) Inc. v. eBay, Inc., 600 F.3d 93 (2d Cir. 2010). Plaintiff has shown that the marks are valid by including the trademark registrations on file with the United States Patent and Trademark Office. See Kang Decl., Ex. A. Additionally, the alleged infringement here, as supported by the undisputed facts and examples Plaintiff includes, are “inherently confusing,” abrogating any need for examination of the factors in Polaroid Corp. v. Polarad Elecs. Corp., 287 F.2d 492, 495 (2d Cir. 1961), because the products in question include counterfeit references and versions of the Baby Shark name and likeness. See Fendi Adele S.R.L. v. Filene’s Basement, Inc., 696 F. Supp. 2d 368, 383 (S.D.N.Y. 2010).

⁵ The Court’s preliminary injunction order also directs certain financial institutions to freeze Defendants’ accounts and for the websites that host Defendants’ storefronts to restrict any access to them. For the reasons stated in Plaintiff’s memorandum of law in support of the motion [ECF #13] and the declarations filed in support of the motion, the court believes that these restrictions are necessary to prevent Defendants from causing further irreparable harm by creating new storefronts and business identities to sell their counterfeit goods.

To obtain a preliminary injunction, Plaintiff need not establish a likelihood of success on every claim. It is sufficient to establish likelihood of success on the merits of only one of its claims. See 725 Eatery Corp. v. City of New York, 408 F. Supp. 3d 424, 459 (S.D.N.Y. 2019) (“Further, Plaintiffs need not demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits of every claim—rather, they need only ‘show a likelihood of success on the merits of at least one of [their] claims.’” (alteration in original) (quoting L.V.M. v. Lloyd, 318 F. Supp. 3d 601, 618 (S.D.N.Y. 2018))). That said, Plaintiff also is likely to succeed on its copyright claim.

To prevail on the copyright claim, Plaintiff must prove it owns a valid copyright and that the infringing products copy an “original” element of the work. See Kwan v. Schlein, 634 F.3d 224, 229 (2d Cir. 2011). In support of its copyright claim, Plaintiff includes its certificate of registration from the United States Copyright Office to prove it owns a valid copyright. See Kang Decl., Ex. B; see also Scholz Design, Inc. v. Sard Custom Homes, LLC, 691 F.3d 182, 186 (2d Cir. 2012) (“A certificate of copyright registration is prima facie evidence of ownership of a valid copyright . . .”). Plaintiff has also demonstrated that Defendants are infringing on Plaintiff’s copyright. See P&G v. Colgate-Pamolive Co., 199 F.3d 74, 77 (2d Cir. 1999) (noting that copyright infringement may be proven both by direct and indirect evidence). The Plaintiff’s Complaint and Exhibits, the factual allegations of which the Court has adopted in full for the purposes of this motion, include various pictures of Defendants’ infringing products as compared to Plaintiff’s legal ones. The products, in short, appear practically identical. See Complaint ¶ 37-39; Arnaiz Decl., Ex. A; Scully Decl., Ex. A. There is also no doubt that Defendants had access to Plaintiff’s work; indeed, it seems wholly unlikely that Defendants could design, manufacture, and sell their products without any sense that Plaintiff’s work existed. See Jorgensen v. Epic/Sony Records, 351 F.3d 46, 51 (2d Cir. 2003) (holding that infringer had access to copyright owners work where there was a “reasonable possibility” of encountering it). Indeed, Plaintiff’s global marketing efforts using the Baby Shark images and products makes this possibility highly unlikely.

Finally, the balance of hardships tips decidedly in Plaintiff’s favor, and an injunction is in the public interest, for the same reason: Defendants’ business is seemingly based on counterfeit, intellectual property-infringing tactics. There is no argument that requiring Defendants to comply with legal obligations is either a legitimate hardship or against the public interest. “[T]o the extent defendants ‘elect to build a business on products found to infringe[,] [they] cannot be heard to complain if an injunction against continuing infringement destroys the business so elected.’” Broad Music, Inc. v. Prana Hosp., Inc., 158 F. Supp. 3d 184, 196 (S.D.N.Y. 2016) (alterations in original) (quoting Mint, Inc. v. Amad, No. 10-cv-9395 (SAS), 2011 WL 1792570, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. May 9, 2011)). Likewise, “injunctive relief here will advance the public’s ‘compelling interest in protecting copyright owners’ marketable rights to their work’ so as to ‘encourage[e] the production of creative work.’” Id. (alteration in original) (citing WPIX, Inc. v. ivi, Inc., 691 F.3d 275, 287 (2d Cir. 2012)).

Plaintiff has demonstrated that it is likely to succeed on both its trademark and copyright claims and that absent an injunction it will suffer irreparable harm. Additionally, there is no hardship on Defendants or superseding public interest that warrants the Court deny the motion. A preliminary injunction is appropriate.

CONCLUSION

The foregoing constitutes the Court's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in Support of the issuance of a preliminary injunction. Plaintiff is directed to serve a copy of this opinion on Defendants, as set forth in the Preliminary Injunction Order.
