ORDER

A. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as good and sufficient cause has been shown, the injunctive relief previously granted on August 2, 2022, and extended on August 11, 2022, shall remain in place through the pendency of this litigation or until further order of this Court, Patent No. 10,477,838 (“Plaintiffs’ Patent” or “the ‘838 patent”) by offering for sale, selling, and distributing knock-off versions of Plaintiffs’ BRISTLY® dog toothbrush (“Infringing Products”). Defendants accomplish their infringing sales through the use of, at least, the Internet based e-commerce stores operated via at least the Third Party Service Provider marketplace platform.

and there is good and sufficient cause for issuing this Preliminary Injunction under 35 U.S.C. § 283, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 64 and 65, and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a). The Court finds that Plaintiffs rely upon a presumptively valid patent, and that nothing in the record calls that validity into question. The evidence establishes that Plaintiffs have shown a sufficient likelihood of success on the merits of this action. The Court also concludes that Plaintiffs have shown that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, and damage will likely result should the relief entered by this Order not be granted. Specifically, the Court finds that Defendants' infringing products are likely to continue to cause Plaintiffs to suffer loss profits, compromise the value of Plaintiffs' brand, and negatively effect Plaintiffs' relationships with its current customers and its ability to attract new customers. Defendants will not be harmed by the imposition of the injunctive relief requested, because the injunction only prohibits Defendants from taking actions they are otherwise not entitled to perform under the law. And finally, the public interest favors the issuance of the requested injunction, and Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law for the immediate and irreparable harms identified.

Accordingly, each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall continue to be restrained as follows:
