<sup>2</sup> It is respectfully submitted there is no reason to conduct a hearing on the Plaintiff's request for damages. All the evidence needed for an award of damages is already before the court. Courts have awarded damages post-default without an evidentiary hearing based upon affidavits like those submitted by the plaintiff in this case. See Rios v. Loves, No. 13-CV-1619 (E.D. Pa. 2015) (After a Court determines that judgment by default should be entered as to liability, the court must address the quantum of damages or other recovery to be awarded. The Court may determine the damages by conducting a hearing or upon submission of affidavits.); see also Jonestown Bank and Trust Co. v. Automated Teller Mach., Services, Inc., 2012 WL 6043624, *4 (M.D. Pa. 2012) (explaining that the Court may determine damages by asking parties to submit "affidavits and other materials from which the court can decide the issue.")
