I. Order Continuing Restraints

A. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as sufficient cause has been shown, the injunctive relief previously granted on October 8, 2024, shall remain in place through the pendency of this litigation, and issuing this Preliminary Injunction (hereafter “PI Order”) is warranted under FRCP 65, Section 34 of the Lanham Act, and Section 283 of the Patent Act. The Court finds that Plaintiff relies upon a presumptively valid patent, and that nothing in the record calls that validity into question. The evidence establishes that Plaintiff has shown a sufficient likelihood of success on the merits of this action. The Court also concludes that Plaintiff has shown that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, and damage will likely result should the relief entered by this Order not be granted. Specifically, the Court finds that Defendants’ infringing products are likely to continue to cause Plaintiff to suffer loss profits, compromise the value of Plaintiff’s brand, and negatively impact Plaintiff’s relationships with its current customers and its ability to attract new customers. Defendants will not be harmed by the imposition of the injunctive relief requested, because the injunction only prohibits Defendants from taking actions they are otherwise not entitled to perform under the law. And finally, the public interest favors the issuance of the requested injunction, and Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law for the immediate and irreparable harms identified.

Accordingly, each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall continue to be restrained as follows:

- (1) from (a) their unauthorized and unlicensed use of Plaintiff’s Patent, distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any Infringing Products; and (b)

- (4) each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately cease offering for sale the Infringing Products within metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any web page (including as the
