

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

PROMIER PRODUCTS INC.,
Plaintiff,

v.

GEAROSZ, et al.,

Defendants

Civil Action No.

FILED UNDER SEAL

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO FILE UNDER SEAL

This action arises out of Defendants' false advertisement of the characteristics and/or qualities of the flashlights being advertised, offered for sale, sold, and/or distributed by Defendants, and selling falsely advertised flashlights throughout the United States, including within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and this district, by operating fully interactive, commercial Internet based e-commerce stores.

Plaintiff submits this application to the Court to file under seal the documents associated with the above-referenced action, including but not limited to: Plaintiff's Complaint and exhibits attached thereto; Plaintiff's ex parte application for: a temporary restraining order, an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue, an asset restraining order, and an order authorizing expedited discovery; Declarations of Cody D. Grandadam, Stanley D. Ference III, and Dee Odell, all in support of Plaintiff's Application and exhibits attached thereto; and an order authorizing alternative service; and Plaintiff's Ex Parte Motion for an Order Authorizing Alternative Service (collectively "Ex Parte Application").

Good cause exists to file the Ex Parte Application under seal. A variety of Courts have granted the relief requested herein in similar cases, recognizing, inter alia:

- a. The Internet based e-commerce stores and Seller IDs at issue in the case are under Defendants' complete control.
- b. Defendants have the ability to change the ownership or modify e-commerce store data and content, change payment accounts, redirect consumer traffic to other seller identification names, and transfer assets and the ownership of the Seller IDs.
- c. Such modifications can happen in a short span of time after Defendants are provided with notice of this action.
- d. Defendants can easily electronically transfer and secret the funds sought to be restrained if they obtain advance notice of the relief sought by Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application and thereby thwart the Court's ability to grant meaningful relief and can completely erase the status quo.
- e. As Defendants engage in illegal infringing activities, there is no reason for Plaintiff to believe Defendants will make their assets available for recovery.

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the court file in this action should be sealed until the hearing on Plaintiff's Application for an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue or further order of the Court.

A Proposed Order granting the Application to Seal is submitted herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
