Very cute, great size. Nice and sturdy so it will last. Great for calming anxiety or a quiet activity for kids.

Wow I think I want to play with this hahahaha I know my son will like this while we are at church and when we go out to eat or on the road. He is three so this will be perfect screen off time.

sp17 in on Oct 17, 2025

Great for fine motor work

Ha*na in on Dec 18, 2025

I enjoy playing with this! Haha, but it is intended for my daughter for Christmas. Thought it might be something she could play with quietly during church or long car rides. Etc.

Laura Elam in on Nov 10, 2025 lot of fun and is exactly as pictured. Looks pretty sturdy.

Wow, nice... The molded square is rounded on the corner with designs “carved /embossed into the surface” the rounded shoelaces fit into these embossing/crevices. The way that the “shoelaces “press into the crevices is very satisfying. The color contrast of the dark of the cube and lighter/brighter colors of the “strings” it’s just fun and pleasing. FYI, the strings are all the sa See more

Excellent busy toy for my toddler and teenage students alike. Materials feel high quality and minus the fact that my toddler tends to lose the "strings", I can't find a single thing wrong with this! Will definitely buy more if this same seller has other holidays.

Perfect for little toddler hands. Kept mine busy. Sturdy ball that doubles as storage for the strips when you're not playing with it to store for flights, road trips, on the go etc. came with so many strips that I can save the other half for when these ones rip. So far, quality seems great. My toddler has attempted to stretch the strips to rip and they have held their shape. Such a great price as

Sensory activity board - 6 in 1 Silicone fidget toys for autism,Fidget cube, Calming push peel sensory pad for travel, Fidget board with pushpeel features

(4.0) | 1 rating

Key item features

- Versatile Design: Transforms from six flat panels into a 3D Rubik's Cube, offering six distinct three-dimensional striped surfaces for creative play and cognitive development.
- Portable Storage: Features a unique design that allows the six pieces to split into flat shapes for easy portability or combine into a cubic storage box for small items.
- Safe Materials: Constructed from food-grade, high-temperature resistant silicone strips and odorless, environmentally friendly PP materials, ensuring safe use.
- Cognitive Stimulation: Engages children in activities that enhance hand-eye coordination, shape and color recognition, spatial imagination, and emotional regulation.
- Multi-Sensory Experience: Provides varied tactile stimulation through raised patterns and encourages fine motor skill development through rotating, assembling, and disassembling actions.
- Adaptable Use: Silicone strips can be customized by cutting, making it suitable for parent-child interaction, group activities, and adaptable for different age groups from 1 year to preschool.

13 Piece Heart Sensory Board Spinning Stick Set for Children's Educational Toys,Calm Down Airplane/Car/Restaurant Essentials, Blue

(No ratings yet)

Key item features

- 【Package Includes】Our product is specially designed for children (especially autistic and ADHD children). Includes 1 blue heart shaped sensory board, 11 random coloured spools and 1 black double drawstring storage bag
- 【High Quality Materials】These sensory toy accessories are made of high quality materials: the sensory board and pivot bar are made of skin-friendly silicone, which is lightweight, flexible, safe, environmentally friendly and durable; the high-density polyester storage bag is waterproof and stain-resistant, and supports direct machine washing
- 【Enhance Attention And Concentration】Unlike traditional sensory toys, our sensory toys feature a special interactive design designed to enhance children's hands-on skills. By assembling the sensory boards, children can improve their hand-eye coordination. In addition, the matching colourful spindle bars help to enhance children's attention and concentration
- 【Promotes Cognitive Development】There is no set way to assemble this sensory toy, it can be assembled freely, which can help stimulate children's cognitive growth and encourage them to solve problems with creativity and imagination. It is effective for people with autism, ADHD, ADD, etc. and helps to relieve their anxiety and restlessness
- 【Multi-Scenario Usage】This lightweight and portable sensory stress relief toy is suitable for a variety of scenarios, including cars, planes, restaurants, campsites, schools and offices, etc. It can effectively help children to relieve stress, calm their emotions and improve their concentration, which is ideal for daily boredom relief and emotion management

Star Sensory Activity Board Silicone Fidget Toy for Silent Calm Down and Stress Relief,Concentration Toys for Autism/ADHD People

(No ratings yet)

Key item features

- 【Package Includes】Our products are designed for children, especially those with autism and ADHD, to help them relieve stress, calm their emotions and improve their concentration. Includes 1 sensory board with rainbow coloured stars, 11 randomly coloured spools and 1 black double drawstring storage bag
- 【High Quality Materials】These sensory toy accessories are made of high-quality materials: the sensory board and pivot bar are made of high-quality silicone, which is lightweight, flexible, safe, environmentally friendly and durable; the storage bag is made of waterproof and stain-resistant high-quality polyester fabric, with a black design, which further enhances the dirt-resistant properties and makes it easy to be used and cleaned on a daily basis
- 【Simple and Fun Interaction】These sensory toys are simple and fun to use: you can touch the various textured areas on the sensory board (such as bumps, waves, or frosting) for rich tactile feedback, then hold the pivot stick and press it to rotate freely on the board. This interaction is not only a pleasurable sensory experience, but also helps to relieve stress and improve concentration
- 【Applicable Scene】Our sensory toys are very lightweight and easy to carry. Suitable for a variety of occasions in cars, planes, restaurants, campsites, schools, and offices and so on
- 【Thoughtful Gift】This rainbow star sensory toy is delicately designed to be a practical stress reliever as well as an effective aid in improving concentration. It is especially suitable for children with autism, ADHD and other special needs, and also meets the stress reduction needs of people of all ages. Whether you give it to your family to express your love and care, or give it to your friends or classmates to convey your feelings, it is a thoughtful and meaningful gift

- 【Package Includes】This sensory activity board set includes 1pc star-shaped activity board, 11pcs silicone sticks in random colors and 1pc double drawstring storage bag. Completely equipped, it is convenient for children to carry out sensory training such as grasping, plugging and unplugging, and it can be easily stored and kept tidy
- 【Safe Material】The movable board is made of high-quality silicone, which is safe, non-toxic, and has a smooth surface and is skin-friendly, so children can play with confidence. It also has good waterproof properties and is easy to wipe clean after getting wet, which is very worry-free
- 【Educational Toys】This sensory activity board specially designed for young children can effectively exercise children's hand-eye coordination, fine movements and color recognition through interactive games such as touching, grasping and plugging, and stimulate early intellectual development through fun exploration
- 【Stress Relief Tool】This sensory activity board helps with mood regulation and stress relief through gentle sensory stimulation. Its design can play a positive supporting role in daily comfort and concentration training for people with autism, ADHD and obsessive-compulsive disorder. As a cute sensory toy, it is also an ideal gift full of understanding and care
- 【Proper Size】The movable board measures 7.2 x 6.8 inches, which is a medium size and very easy to carry. This allows children to enjoy exploring anytime and anywhere, effectively reducing dependence on electronic products

Seller was great getting my mistiming item resolved

Item bought:
miuhuy BTS Map of The Soul 7 Special Edition Light stick

★☆☆☆☆ Feb 22, 2026

Walmart customer

I really don't have any problems with shopping online. I usually have a good experience, but this light stick. The box was all tattered dented. It looked like someone stepped on it actually. i'm feeling sad about the whole thing that's all.

Item bought:
miuhuy BTS Map of The Soul 7 Special Edition Light stick

★★☆☆☆ Feb 17, 2026

Walmart customer

See comment above. The accuracy of the lightstick's functionality was very poor. It is not bluetooth - compatible. So you get a flashlight but it does not track with the app, and as a result was not worth turning on at the concert. Waste of money.

3D Sensory Fidget Cube for Kids & Adults Silicone Quiet Autism Travel Toy Montessori Busy Board for Toddlers 1-8 Years Old

(4.0) | 8 ratings

Theme: Green Cube

Now $12.99
~~$14.99~~

Key item features

- Quiet Travel: Provides screen-free sensory engagement for children aged 3-5+ in cars, flights, and restaurants, ensuring zero noise or mess.
- Therapeutic Support: Reduces fidgeting and anxiety for individuals with autism, ADHD, and OCD, aiding in focus building through repetitive behavior replacement.
- Motor Skill Development: Montessori-inspired 3D cube enhances fine motor control, hand-eye coordination, and spatial imagination through pushing, peeling, and twisting actions.
- ASMR Stress Relief: Features satisfying silicone textures that generate calming ASMR, suitable for both children and adults to channel nervous energy into relaxation.
- Portable Durability: Designed with open storage, making it an ultimate on-the-go busy toy that is easy to transport for mess-free play anywhere.
- Age Versatility: Suitable for toddlers aged 1-8 years old, with specific benefits highlighted for ages 3 to teens, and also serves as an all-ages stress buster.
- Color Tones: Available in Serene Cube (cool tones) for focus and long car rides, and Calm Cube (warm tones) for anxiety relief and airplane trips.

Product Description
Children's decompression board
color: Red,Green
Size :
25×25cm(9.84×9.84in)

Packing:1pc Decompression board

Describe:
【 Decompression and Sedation 】When you play with fidget toys, it relieves stress and anxiety, eliminates outbursts and anger, and can help adults focus more and release stress at work. Can provide a therapeutic, satisfying, and relaxing activity that benefits children with anxiety, stress, ADHD, autism, and special needs.
【 Study and Exercise 】Sensory toys encourage open, hands-on play and develop fine motor skills, finger dexterity, hand-eye coordination and visual attention through tactile experiences such as pushing, peeling, tying and bridging. Support them to explore the world through activities.

Note:
May have 1-2cm difference, because this is measured by hands, please understand.
Please measure the size in the middle of the mat, it will be accurate.
Please check your pet size before making order.

Product Description
Children's decompression board
color: Red,Green
Size :
25×25cm(9.84×9.84in)
Packing:1pc Decompression board
Describe:
¡¾ Decompression and Sedation ¡¿When you play with fidget toys, it relieves stress and anxiety, eliminates outbursts and anger, and can help adults focus more and release stress at work. Can provide a therapeutic, satisfying, and relaxing activity that benefits children with anxiety, stress, ADHD, autism, and special needs.
¡¾ Study and Exercise ¡¿Sensory toys encourage open, hands-on play and develop fine motor skills, finger dexterity, hand-eye coordination and visual attention through tactile experiences such as pushing, peeling, tying and bridging. Support them to explore the world through activities.
Note:
May have 1-2cm difference, because this is measured by hands, please understand.
Please measure the size in the middle of the mat, it will be accurate.
Please check your pet size before making order.
